Central-Laurel P. T. A.

A regular meeting of the Central-Laurel Parent-Teacher association was held Monday evening, April 8, in the Byron Stolp gymnasium. The attractive program was arranged by the School Beautiful committee and Art league and announced by Mrs. John Weedon, who explained that the committee cares for the beautifying of the outside of the schools, while the Art league fosters the development of beauty inside the school room and sponsors the children's lecture tours to the Art Institute.

Miss Helen Smith sang very beautifully, "O, Cease Thy Singing O Maiden Fair," by Rachmaninoff, and "Spring Moods," by Robert Yale Smith, and was accompanied by Mrs. Gilbert, pianist, and Miss Grandquist, violinist.

A unique part of the program was a "Fashion Revue" staged by girls of the three eighth grade rooms. They displayed gowns they had made under the direction of Miss Woodley.

Miss Henrietta Roberston was next on the program singing "Life," by Curran, and "The Swallows," by Cowen. Mrs. Berblinger was the accompanist.

Jesse Lowe Smith, principal of the Highland Park schools, displayed pictures of wild flowers and made a plea for conservation. He urged all to support the effort to save the Dunes as Forest Preserves.

As a fitting close Supt. J. R. Harper spoke on grateful appreciation of the devoted teachers, Mrs. Lena Butz and Miss Nellie Decker, who contributed so much to the cause of education by their self-sacrifice and sincerity of purpose.

Mrs. W. A. Kenrick, Mrs. L. A. Baldwin, and Miss Marie Fox are delegates chosen to represent the associa-
