

Live in Skokie Valley - - where broad acres cost less than small city lots!

A few of the desirable pieces of acreage now available in Skokie Valley.

Five acres on the bank of a stream, touches Forest Preserve, bridle paths, in New Trier Township, less than a mile from Winnetka. Fine view and ideal site for country home. $5,000 per acre. Terms.

Northfield's most beautiful piece—6½ acres—30 large elms and oaks. View of Sunset Ridge; water from Winnetka available soon. $4,500 per acre. Terms.

Ten acres, high, close-in, Sunset Ridge Road; 660 feet on road. $3,500 per acre. Terms.

If you are planning to build a home, why not plan, too, to have a delightful yard, and a garden—away from traffic—where your family can have fresh air and sunshine abundantly?

A little investment goes a long way in Skokie Valley, toward which the tide of growing population is only just beginning to turn. Here you can buy acres with the same outlay of capital that small plots in the city would require.

Consider what the Skokie offers you. Green meadows and leafy trees, quiet seclusion, yet the utmost convenience to first class stores, churches, schools and amusements. There are sports of every kind near at hand. Broad, well-paved motor roads and the new electric line furnish rapid transportation to all points. This is sure to boom values, and those who build here early will profit.

In the Skokie Valley, as on the North Shore, Quinlan & Tyson know values as only those can who specialize in one section. Their representatives can show you attractive acreage, at prices that allow future profits.

Plan to have a Skokie homestead this year. Get your choice of location early. Our men will be glad to drive you out and show you some of the choicest acreage. Phone, and they will call.
