

FOOT SLIPPED

THAT title sounds
INTERESTING enough
FOR a scenario, but we
HAVE a hunch that it was
OUR foot that slipped last
WEEK when we proposed
TO inject some pep into
OUR advertising. It's not
SO much what to say as
WHAT not to say that
HAS us up a tree. We COULD make these ads
INTERESTING just by
SPILLING what we know
ABOUT some people.
AND it would be more
INTERESTING for us
WHEN they got wind of it.
THIS business of being
LITERARY is the bunk
AND if we just tell you
ABOUT Rubber Gloves,
WHICH a lotta lady
CUSTOMERS are buying
AT 37c a pair, that
OUGHT to be interesting
ENOUGH.

Moral: Your foot won't slip any in buying Rubber
Goods at this store.

Commencement Exercises in Wilmette on June 14

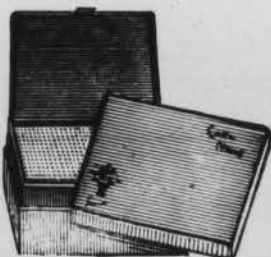

One hundred and fifty pupils of the Wilmette Public schools who have completed their grammar school work will receive diplomas at the annual commencement exercises to be held in the Howard school gymnasium Friday evening, June 14. The program for the exercises will be furnished largely by the musical organizations of the schools. The eighth graders went to New Trier High school last week to complete their registration for the fall term. Names of the graduates will be printed in a subsequent issue of WILMETTE LIFE.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Oakley and their daughter Elsie, of Chicago, have come to Wilmette to spend the summer with Mrs. Oakley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Max Guler, 412 Gregory avenue.

J. M. Throckmorton Dies Following Stroke May 21

J. M. Throckmorton, 1321 Elmwood avenue, suffered a stroke while working in his garden Tuesday evening, May 21, and died a few hours later at his home. Mr. Throckmorton, who was associated with the North American Accident Insurance company, had lived in Wilmette about ten years. He had been a member of St. Augustine's Episcopal church vestry for the last three years and at the time of his death was secretary-treasurer of the Wilmette Church union. He was also active in Community Chest work and in connection with the other civic enterprises.

Surviving him are a daughter, Mabel Elizabeth, 17, a senior at New Trier High school; a son, John 13; two brothers, W. K. Throckmorton and P. J. Throckmorton, both of Detroit, and a sister, Mrs. James Orr, of Michigan City, Ind. Mrs. Throckmorton died eleven years ago.

Funeral services will be held at St. Augustine's church this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Dr. Hubert Carleton officiating. The vestry of the church will act as pall bearers. Interment will be at Rosehill.

New Trier Debate Team to Meet Roosevelt High

The New Trier High school affirmative debate team composed of John Erickson, Lois Goldstein, and Dorland Davies, was scheduled to meet Northwestern university freshmen Friday, May 24, in a debate on the abolition of the jury system. The same team will debate Roosevelt High school of Chicago next Tuesday. Both debates will be held at New Trier.

Rev. V. V. Loper Is Delegate to Cong'l Meeting

Sunday, May 26, will be the last time that the Rev. Vere V. Loper will occupy the pulpit of the First Congregational church until June 23. He will be a delegate to the meeting of the National council of Congregational churches to be held in Detroit on June 2.

The pulpit of the church on Sunday, June 2, will be occupied by President J. R. Brownell of Northland college.

Other Wilmette delegates to the National council will be the Rev. William E. McCormack, minister of education, Mrs. F. L. Joy, and Mrs. A. H. Howard.

The annual Children's Day exercises of the church will be held on June 9, under the direction of Mr. McCormack. On that Sunday Mr. Loper will be the speaker at the Commencement Vesper service at Grinnell college. On June 16, he will be in the midst of a series of addresses to the State Congregational Young People's conference of Iowa. Mr. McCormack will occupy the pulpit of the church on that Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Roche, 801 Central avenue, returned this week from the Derby, where they went with a party from the Lake Shore Athletic club. On their way back they stopped off at French Lick Springs, Ind.

Sir George Croyden Marks of London, England was the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. West, 723 Ashland avenue. Sir Marks, formerly a member of Parliament, has been in Chicago this week on business.

Mrs. Naomi B. Hamilton, 401 Maple avenue, left Saturday for Salina, Kas. for a two weeks' visit with her father, W. W. Brown.
