

IN A HURRY

IN the old days if ANYBODY missed a STAGE coach he was CONTENT to wait three OR four days for ANOTHER one. Now HE lets out a squawk IF he misses one section OF a revolving door. It USED to take nearly a DAY to go from here to WAUKEGAN, including STOPS to feed and water THE horses, while now we MAKE it in an hour, AND some in a good deal LESS. We all seem to be IN a hurry, but what MAKES us sore is for some BIRD to drive into a FILLING station ahead of US, honk loudly for the ATTENDANT and then, AFTER his car is filled, SIT there and talk while HE keeps us waiting.

Moral: Quick service during business hours; talk, if you want to, other times.
