

Making Fire by Friction

Making fire by friction is one of the interesting features of Boy Scout life. This young man is shown demonstrating the process at a Scout rally held recently on the Village Green in Wilmette.

Carlton R. Dart, Veteran Engineer, Dies at Age of 67

Carlton R. Dart, 67, of 706 Greenleaf avenue, Wilmette, a member of the Chicago sanitary district engineering staff since 1901, died Sunday, June 23. Mr. Dart was born at Lansing, Mich., where he began his career as assistant engineer of that city. Later he entered the railroad service and then came to Chicago. He was noted as a bridge designer, having planned thirteen of the bascule bridges over the Chicago river, including the State street and Dearborn street spans and the famous butterfly dam on the drainage canal at Lockport.

Since the death of his wife, Mr. Dart had made his home with two sisters-in-law, the Misses Margaret and Jane Weinland. A brother, James, also survives him.

The funeral services were held from his late residence Tuesday afternoon, June 25, at 1 o'clock. Burial took place at Mt. Greenwood cemetery.

Miss Ruth Randall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Randall, 912 Twelfth street, is visiting relatives in southern California for several weeks.

Young-Golk Wedding Is Solemnized in Chicago

Miss Leona Young of Hubbard Woods was married to Albert C. Golk, Jr. of Chicago Saturday, June 22. The ceremony took place at the Albany Park Presbyterian church in Chicago with the Rev. Mr. King officiating.

The groom's sister, Miss Florence Golk, was maid of honor and Miss Mary Van De North of Wilmette was bridesmaid. Raymond Fasick of Chicago was best man and Homer Renaud, also of Chicago, was groomsman. Mr. and Mrs. Golk will make their home in Chicago.
