

Miss Nellie Gibbs Becomes Bride of Ellis R. Jones

Charming in its simplicity was the wedding of Miss Nellie Gibbs and Ellis R. Jones, both of Wilmette, which took place last Saturday afternoon. The Rev. Leland Hobart Danforth read the marriage service at 4 o'clock, in the Church of the Holy Comforter in Kenilworth, which was graced with peonies, palms and ferns in artistic arrangement. Miss Alice Burchard of 1424 Forest avenue, with whom the bride has made her home, was hostess at a wedding reception for seventy-five guests which followed the ceremony at the Kenilworth club.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Charles E. Hotze of Wilmette, wore a frock of pale pink chiffon and a veil of pale pink tulle, and carried a bouquet of white roses, pink sweet peas, and lilies of the valley. Her only attendant, Miss Shirley Harrison of Cleveland, was gowned in blue georgette and carried yellow roses and deep blue delphinium.

Mr. Jones, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Jones of 929 Michigan avenue, has taken his bride on an automobile trip through the north woods.

TAKE EASTERN TOUR

Mrs. Charles Ostrom of 715 Washington avenue and her son, Rennolds, with Mrs. Ostrom's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. William Rennolds, left last week for a tour of the eastern states, stopping in Haverhill, Vt., the home of Mrs. Rennolds. They expect to visit the eastern colleges and return in six weeks.

W. Wallace Kerr of 707 Greenwood avenue is in Minneapolis this week attending the convention of the National Credit Men's association.
