

OUT OF THEIR CLASS

WE were just thinking THIS morning as we UNPACKED another SHIPMENT of Shari TOILET goods, what a WONDERFUL time VENUS, for instance, or HELEN of Troy, or CLEOPATRA would have IF they could just be TURNED loose for about AN hour in our Toiletry DEPARTMENT. We can PICTURE them dabbing ON a bit of Shari rouge AND then patting on some SHARI powder, and we CAN almost hear them SQUEAL when they DISCOVER these "ducky" LITTLE perfume ATOMIZERS that we are SHOWING. But say, IT occurs to us that THEY would have to use a LOT of that kind of stuff TO compete with the FEMININE pulchritude THAT we have right HERE in Wilmette.

Moral: Beauty is only skin deep but Wilmette men are not cannibals.

Winnetkan Author of New Book on Chicago

Rush C. Butler, Jr., 40 Locust road, Winnetka, is the author of "Chicago, the World's Youngest Great City" which has just been published. The book, according to Mr. Rush, is comprised of a series of essays on the various enterprises and industries represented in the city written by men who are leaders in their individual fields and who "know the spiritual and material resources of an indomitable community, who know its history and its mission." Among the residents of the north shore contributing are Benjamin H. Marshall, Daniel Burnham, James Simpson, Louis Eckstein, George Everitt and Frederick Scott.

ALPHA PHI MOTHERS

Alphi Phi mothers gave a tea Thursday afternoon, Nov. 21, at the chapter house. Mrs. Stephen Day and Mrs. Walsh were hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick G. Merrill of Evanston, formerly of Kenilworth, announce the marriage of their daughter, Kathryn, to William Charles Havelaar on Saturday, November 30.

POULTRY

The finest the market affords. Many North Shore families tried it Thanksgiving.

Bleser's Bowling Alleys

Dec. 6, 1929

In the I. O. O. F. league George Mergenthaler informs us that Homer Cazel and Charlie Knobble have not been bowling so hot the past few weeks, causing their teams to drop a place in the standing.

In the first five games of their ten-game match Frank Feigen and Nutch Hoffman are twelve pins ahead of Eddie Bleser and Frank Sesterhenn. Each one of the four averaged over 190, showing some classy bowling, so we wouldn't be surprised this coming Saturday if they average 200 or better.

The 'Borres' took two out of three from Ed's Coffee Shop Monday night, which put them in first place by one game. They dropped the first game and then came back with two well over 900, which was just a little too much for Ed's "Kids."

The Mixed League still finds the J. H. Schaefer team in first place, with the H. F. Ritter, Wilmette Life, and Bleser teams in a close fight for second. B. Mac Stevens leads the ladies with a 150 average, while Lee Nelson of the men is in front with 190.

Most people who frequent these alleys very often have come to the conclusion that Moe (Savage) De Haye is about the most artistic bowler on the drives. It seems he does everything but the splits when he throws his well-known sour apple.
