

ENDS LECTURE TOUR

Mrs. A. Starr Best of Evanston Returns to Teach Drama Course at Garrett Institute

Returning from an early winter lecture tour in Florida to teach a twelve weeks' course at Garrett institute in the drama, and to supervise the judging of the manuscripts entered in the Drama league's national religious play contest, Mrs. A. Starr Best of Evanston, is deep in the drama movement with which her name is nationally and internationally coupled.

While in Florida she gave a series of lectures on the drama in Jacksonville, Orlando, Winter Park and Tampa and gave single lectures in other places in the state.

At Garrett she is teaching three courses, one in the elements of the use of drama in the church, another in elementary drama, and the third an evening seminar in play appreciation.

The contests organized by the Drama league, both sacred and secular, have closed, and a local committee appointed by Mrs. Best is doing the preliminary judging of the 104 manuscripts entered in the sacred drama contest. Its members include Gareth P. Leverton of the School of Speech faculty, Prof. Oliver Farnsworth Mrs. Edwin Price, Miss Greta Goffe, Eugene Frost, Mrs. Ralph Dennis, John Allen Stewart, Mrs. Bertha Burrill, Mrs. Frederick Dickinson and Edward Crowley. The final judging will be done by Dr. Norman Richardson, Harold Ehrensperger and Mrs. Best. Results are expected to be ready for announcement before April when the results of the judging of the secular play contest will be given out.

31 Kenilworth Scouts Enjoy Jaunt to Cary

Robert W. Townley, athletic director at the Joseph Sears school in Kenilworth, took thirty-one Boy Scouts on a winter hike to Cary last Saturday. Although the weather was too mild for skating the group spent the day skiing and tobogganing. The boys report that they skied on thirty-seven different hills.

The trip to Cary was made by bus, and the boys who went were: Bob Burns, Harry Weese, Paul Leach, Henry Eggert, Stanley Hillman, Lary Botthof, Cy MacKinnon, Bill Shades, Stanley Knight, David Weimar, David Elmgren, Bill Robertson, Tom Hildebrandt, Bob Fulton, Jack Byrne, Donald Vail, Jim Fitzgerald, Tom Crittenden, Fred Workman, Donald Cooke, George Benson, Bob Cutler, Jack Sinding, Bruce Granstrom, Frank Carpenter, Richard Holmes, Paul Cornell, Robert McCloud, Russell Cooke, Ben Matthews, and Jack Stebbins. If the weather is favorable, Mr. Townley plans a similar hike this Saturday for boys who were unable to go last week.

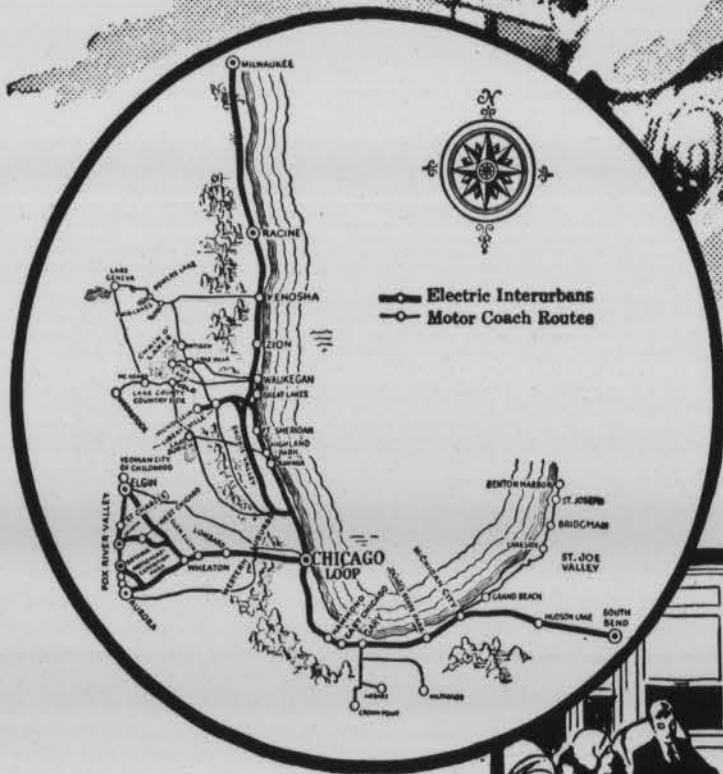

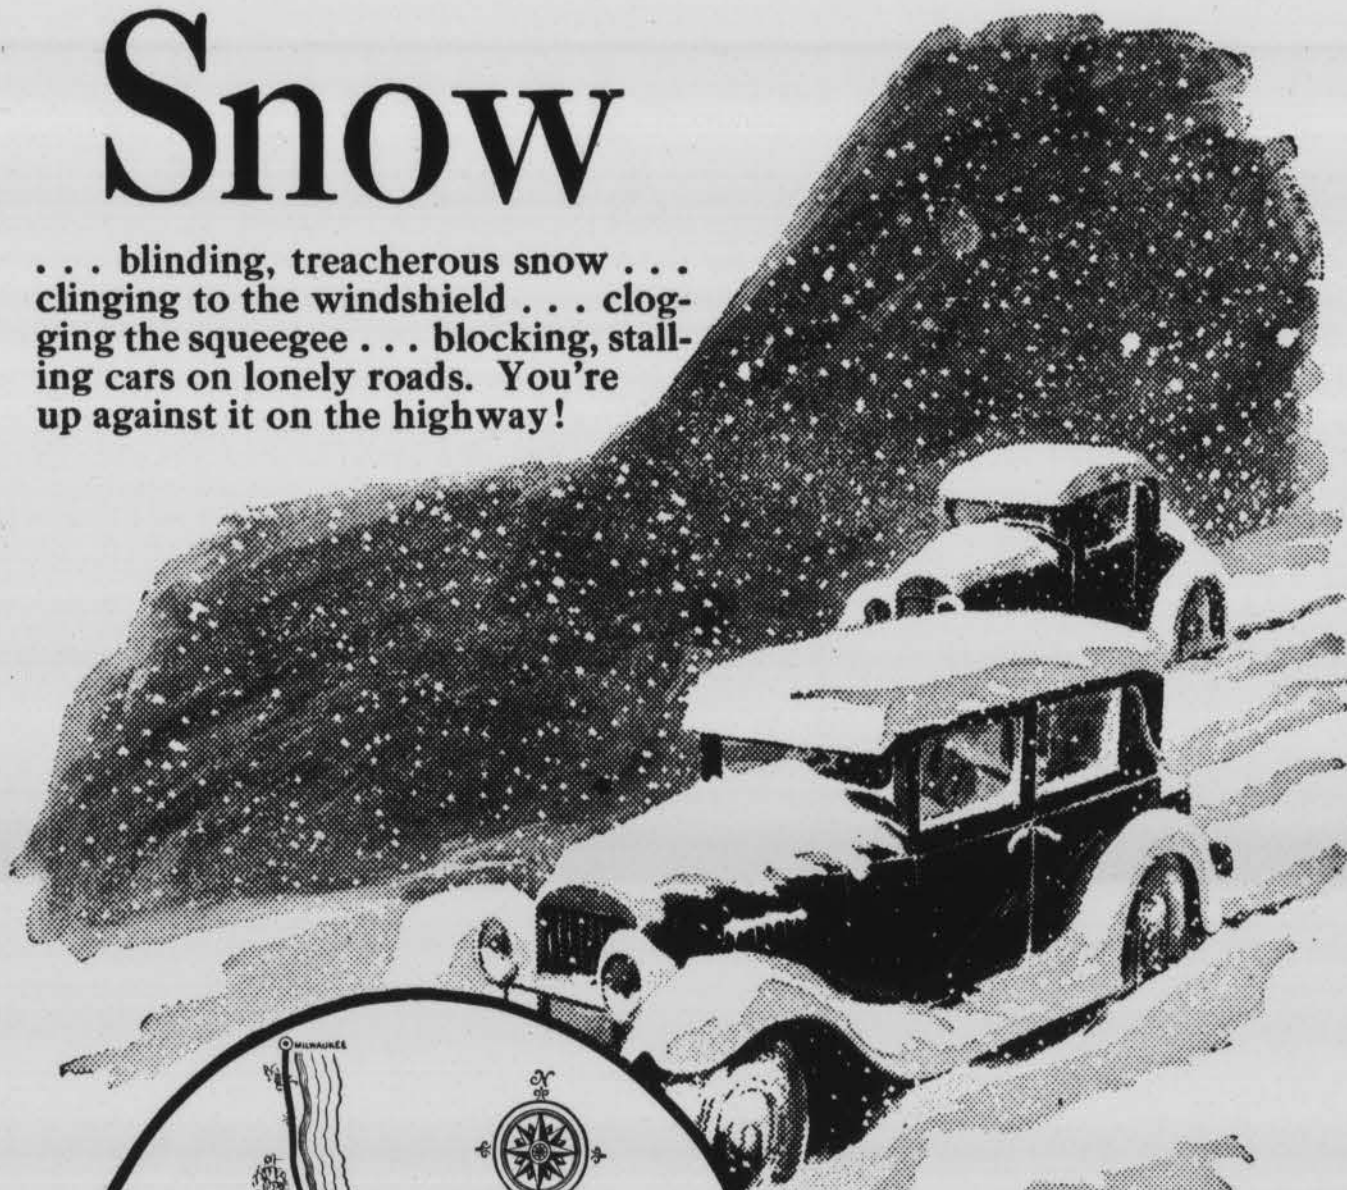

Craig B. Ketchum, 611 Abbottsford road, Kenilworth, gave a stag dinner in honor of Wesley Blom of Evanston who has left for San Francisco to enter business. The guests were business associates of Mr. Ketchum and Mr. Blom. Mrs. Blom and her small daughter are spending the time until they leave for California to join Mr. Blom, with Mrs. Blom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Pease of Kenilworth.

Miss Inez Webster, 314 Oxford road, Kenilworth, who returned to Smith college last week, stopped off at Utica, N. Y. to attend a party at Hamilton college. Miss Webster arrived at Smith last Friday to resume her studies.

Mrs. Grant Ridgeway, 207 Cumberland road, Kenilworth entertained her afternoon bridge club at luncheon at her home on Tuesday of this week.
