

Taxpayers!

EVERYONE must now know the tragic news about what the reassessment has done to your tax bills and what it is going to do to your pocketbook. Everyone has now had something to say about the situation. Meetings have been held and everybody has loudly proclaimed the injustice of the new valuations, the tax bills for which may not be out for months.

What Are You Going to Do About It!

What Will Be Done About It!

What Can Be Done About It!

MR. PROPERTY OWNER! If you have had your fill of loud protests and shoutings which can accomplish absolutely nothing, please read over carefully every word of this message that contains a proven and guaranteed plan for the rectification of the erroneous elements that enter into the tax situation this year.

You are interested in knowing what your taxes should be and not what they will be and you cannot know unless something is done immediately!

Remember, that our company, its technical staff and engineers, and their methods of operation have been thoroughly investigated by various authorities and important personages for months before they agreed that we had the only plan that can be of direct benefit to the individual tax payer.

Remember, that we welcome a thorough investigation on your part if you have any doubts as to our ability to carry through to a successful conclusion anything that we may undertake.
