

Toastmistress

Mrs. Harold S. Dickerson of 1357 Asbury avenue, Hubbard Woods, was toastmistress recently at the banquet of the Daughters of the American Revolution in Washington, the last and largest affair of the Congress held last week by that organization. More than one thousand members attended the banquet. During the Congress Mrs. Dickerson also gave her reports as state regent of China and as national chairman of the Caroline E. Holt Philippine Scholarship fund.

Christian Science Churches

"Probation after Death" was the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, April 27.

The golden text was, "Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord" (Hebrews 12:14).

Among the citations which comprised the lesson-sermon was the following from the Bible: "If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable. But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first-fruits of them that slept. For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection from the dead" (1 Cor. 15: 19-21).

The lesson-sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "In his resurrection and ascension, Jesus showed that a mortal man is not the real essence of manhood, and that this unreal material mortality disappears in presence of the reality" (p. 292).

New Trier Giants Lose to Skokie Elks, 14-5

The Skokie Elks defeated the New Trier Giants in a five-inning game last Sunday by a score of 14 to 5. The game, which was played on the Giants' field at Glenview and Hibbard roads, was called at the end of the fifth because of rain. This Sunday, May 4, the Elks will play a team from Evanston on their own field on Happy road a block west of Hibbard road.

Mr. and Mrs. William White of Ravinia announce the birth of a daughter, Sunday, April 27, at the Evanston hospital. Mr. White is the son of Mrs. James White of 931 Chestnut avenue, Wilmette, and Mrs. White was Margaret Paterson, formerly of Wilmette.

McLeod Orchestra Will Perform at Miralago

Allen McLeod, familiarly known to patrons of Miralago as "Mac," formerly the novelty trombonist in the orchestra of Dell Coon, has now organized his own eleven-piece orchestra, and by reason of Miralago loaning Dell Lampe and the Miralago Brunswick Recording orchestra to Armour institute for their Formal Spring promenade at the Congress hotel, Miralago has invited McLeod and his orchestra to hold forth from Miralago on the night of May 16.

Mrs. Charles W. Ramsey, formerly of Wilmette, now of Evanston, has been visiting old friends in Santa Monica, Los Angeles, Pasadena, and Hollywood, Cal., since March 8, and will return to her home some time in May after a delightful vacation on the coast.
