

Evanston Cradle Plans Benefit Ball at Drake, Oct. 25

The Cradle ball, given by the Cradle society of Evanston, will be held Saturday, October 25, in the gold ballroom of the Drake hotel.

Mrs. L. Octigan White is general chairman of the ball. She will be assisted by Mrs. John C. Slade and Mrs. Cyrus Logan Garnett, the former in charge of tickets and the latter in charge of the Tower room.

The following committees will serve: Supper arrangements, Mrs. Augustus W. Eddy, Mrs. K. V. R. Nicol, Mrs. Warren A. Lamson; the bridge room, Mrs. Buckingham Chandler, Mrs. Frederick K. Scott, Mrs. Horace Armstrong; decorations, Mrs. Corey Blanchard; features, Mrs. Louis Blessing, Mrs. Harry C. Clyde, Mrs. Donald Dunbar; music, Mrs. Chester Corey; cigarettes, Mrs. F. E. Sheridan, Mrs. Roland Keyes, Mrs. Frederick K. Lawrence; reservations, Mrs. Eugene M. Stevens. Mrs. Charles Gates Dawes is honorary chairman of the ball.

The patronesses include Mesdames Julian Armstrong, Edwin A. Ashcraft, Jr., Gustavus Babson, Frederick H. Bartlett, Waller Borden, Rodney Brandon, Nelson L. Buck, George B. Dryden, Augustus W. Eddy, Louis L. Emerson, J. Horton Fall, Jr., Henry A. Gardner, Charles F. Gore, John F. Hagey, Thomas R. Hair, Francis H. Hardy, H. Newton Hudson, Warren A. Lamson, Charles G. Little, John McGibbon, James B. Offield, Gordon Pirie, Joseph E. Rogers, Fred W. Sargent, Henry T. Stanton, Walter Strong, John Stuart, Melvin A. Traylor, William Waller, Jr., Robert C. Wheeler, John Wilder, and Miss Cornelia Lunt.

Fourteen hundred babies have been happily placed in carefully investigated homes by the Cradle since its founding in 1923. More than one thousand persons are now on the waiting list eager for parenthood through Cradle babies.

Special musical instrumentation by Cope Harvey, himself, will entertain those attending the ball.

Sell Tickets for Benefit

Tickets now are selling for an event which, each year, is always one of the largest social events of the season, the afternoon card party given as a benefit for the philanthropy department of the Woman's club of Wilmette. The day of this year's bridge is Wednesday, October 29, the place, the Woman's club building, the hour, 2 o'clock. A prize is to be given for every four tickets sold, the chairman, Mrs. William Holmes of 622 Central avenue announces, and those so desiring, may make up small groups and play in private homes.

Dance Opens Club Season

The first of this season's social events at the Kenilworth club is scheduled for Friday evening, October 24, and will be in the nature of a Hallowe'en dinner dance. Hostesses for the evening are Mrs. Hugh G. Petersen and Mrs. Don W. Mercer. Music will be by Cope Harvey's orchestra. Reservations are to be made with Mrs. Petersen or Mrs. William Taylor not later than Wednesday, October 22, it is announced.

Give Bridge-Luncheon

Mrs. N. P. Zech of 918 Forest avenue and Mrs. Edwin Georger of 823 Ashland avenue entertained Wednesday afternoon at luncheon and bridge at the Shawnee Country club.

Catholic Club Group Plans Evening Benefit

Mrs. P. J. McGurk, who has consented to act as chairman of the ways and means committee of the Woman's Catholic club of Wilmette during the illness of the regular chairman, Mrs. Frank Widger, entertained the members of the committee at luncheon Thursday of last week at Shawnee Country club.

The committee members were enthusiastic over plans for an evening party to be given at the home of Mrs. P. S. Barton, 257 Kenilworth avenue, Kenilworth Thursday, Oct. 24. The affair is to be one of the large social events of the season and a large attendance is expected, the committee announces. Husbands of members will be guests, as well as their wives, at the bridge party, at which prizes will be given and refreshments served.

In view of possible limitations, the committee asks that reservations be made early with Mrs. William Moonsey, 124 Fourth street.

N. C. E. Alumnae Chapter Will Augment Membership

Mrs. L. L. Lane, president of the North Shore chapter of the Alumnae association, National College of Education, presided at the first autumn meeting of this organization, which was held at the college on Thursday evening, October 9. Supper was served in the new cafeteria, following a tour of the recently completed third floor of Harrison hall.

This North Shore group of alumnae has been active in assisting the college in securing funds for the construction and equipment of this building. Under the leadership of Mrs. Lane the north shore alumnae are planning an unusually active year.

Special emphasis will be placed upon an increased membership, endeavoring to enlist as members of the chapter the 450 alumnae in the north shore area.

White Elephant Sale Oct. 28

A white Elephant sale is planned in conjunction with the next regular meeting of the Woman's Catholic club of Wilmette on October 28, under the direction of Mrs. Samuel H. Moore. "A white elephant," the club announces, "is something that is good but is something its owner no longer wants. Here is a chance to see it sell for fifty cents. The proceeds go to the church building fund."

Wellesley Circle Opens

The North Shore Wellesley circle will hold the opening meeting of the year Tuesday, October 21, at 2:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Albert C. Goodnow, 659 Valley road, Glencoe. Mrs. Charles D. Brandriff and Mrs. Dunbar W. Lewis are co-hostesses. News of commencement and of the education conference will comprise the program which will be followed by a social hour.

Welfare Auxiliary Meeting

The Junior Auxiliary of the Infant Welfare society will meet at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, October 20, at the home of Mrs. H. A. Craig, 716 Lake avenue, with Mrs. A. E. Beirnes, Mrs. Elmer Becker, Mrs. B. C. Bowen, and Mrs. John Campbell as assisting hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Fentress of Hubbard Woods announce the engagement of their daughter, Emily Gary Fentress, to Robert Stocking, son of Mrs. William A. Stocking, Jr., of Ithaca, N. Y.
