

SWINGS IN LINE TO ELECT LEWIS

(Continued from Page 1)

against. This proposition had been sponsored among others by the North Shore Real Estate board.

The $14,000,000 State Game, Fish and Forest Preserve Bond Issue, which carried, failed of approval in New Trier, the vote being 4,917 yes, and 5,341 no.

Lewis Wins Easily

Senator-elect Lewis carried all but six precincts in New Trier. He rolled up a total of 5,995 ballots as against 3,919 for Ruth Hanna McCormick, the Republican candidate. Lottie Holman O'Neill, independent candidate for U. S. Senator, polled an extremely light vote.

Anna Wilmarth Ickes of Winnetka, Republican candidate for re-election as state representative, led the field with a total of 13,214 votes, this large total attributable to the plumping of votes with three candidates among four to be elected. Emmett McGrath, who was Mrs. Ickes' Democratic opponent, received 7,394 votes.

Carl R. Chindblom, Republican candidate for re-election as Congressman from the Tenth Congressional district, had no difficulty in defeating his Democratic opponent, John E. Hesse. Chindblom received 6,320, while Hesse was given 3,042. Hesse, however, fared better in other localities and was elected, according to reports.

Meyering Is Victor

Carlos Ames, alleged Thompson follower, received a sound trouncing in New Trier at the hands of William D. Meyering, his Democratic opponent for sheriff. Meyering amassed 7,730 votes, while Ames was forced to content himself with a scant 2,802.

Robert M. Sweitzer, perpetual county clerk, was given the stamp of approval in New Trier by a count of 6,590. Peter I. Bukowski, his Republican adversary, received 3,723.

An indication of the manner in which New Trier voters split their ballots is found again in the instance of Howard P. Savage, Republican candidate for County Treasurer, who was given a overwhelming majority locally over Joseph B. McDonough. Savage polled 7,624, McDonough 2,564.

Edmund K. Jarecki, Democratic candidate for re-election as County Judge, carried New Trier handily 6,043 to 4,356 for his Republican opponent, William E. Helander.

Edward J. Tobin, Democratic fixture as County Superintendent of Schools for a score of years won out in New Trier by a scant majority over George A. Schwebel, Republican. Tobin received 5,200 votes as against 4,783 for Schwebel.

Ross C. Hall, Democratic candidate for Judge of the Superior court in opposition to Charles C. Carnahan of Wilmette, Republican, managed to eke out a victory in New Trier. Ross was given 5,030 and Carnahan received 4,911.

Anton J. Cermak, leader of the Democratic party in Cook county and candidate for re-election as President of the Board of County Commissioners, failed to keep pace with other major Democratic entries insofar as New Trier was concerned. Otto F. Reich, his Republican opponent, polled 5,603 while Cermak received 4,697.

Axel Lonnquist of Wilmette, Republican candidate for County Commissioner, polled the highest vote locally among candidates for that office. He received 6,759. Mrs. Edward J. Fleming, Democratic candidate, and a resident of Evanston, ran second with 4,957.

Heads Trustees

Arthur Andersen, 930 Chestnut avenue, Wilmette was last week elected president of the board of trustees of Northwestern university to succeed Melvin A. Traylor, president of the First National Bank of Chicago, who resigned because of pressure of business.

Mr. Traylor will remain a member of the board and will be known as honorary chairman. Since his election to the presidency last June to succeed Robert W. Campbell two of his business associates have died and the added burden on him has obliged him to give up the office, it was announced.

Circuit Theater Keeps on if $3,700 Is Raised

Confident that its friends will rally to its support and help it raise $3,700 more that it needs to assure its existence in a tough season, the North Shore Circuit theater (formerly the North Shore Theater guild), is continuing its campaign with this goal.

Following a meeting Sunday of a large group of its directors and patrons, the former pledged their personal effort in raising this sum. It was reported from the campaign conducted simultaneously last week in various north shore towns and in Evanston, that 750 subscriptions have been received, and that 400 more are needed. The campaign is being extended through this week to that end.

Attendance at the meeting Sunday encouraged the directors to believe that there is still the desire for the theater group on the north shore, it is reported, and because of this rehearsals of the first play of the season have begun.

Married Men to Get Preference for Jobs

In order to help relieve the distress due to unemployment, Postmaster Joseph E. Shantz of Wilmette stated this week that he will employ as many married men who are out of work as possible during the Christmas holiday rush period. It will be necessary for men desiring work at the postoffice to have the recommendations of at least two Wilmette residents indicating that they are in need of work and worthy of the temporary postoffice jobs. Men seeking work at the postoffice will also have to furnish a bond of sixty-five cents, in compliance with government regulations. Applicants may get in touch with Postmaster Shantz any time prior to December 1.

Manages Store

Mrs. John C. Mannerud, 811 Ridge avenue, Evanston, is now associated with the Campbell, Inc., hosiery and underwear shop, at 1608 Orrington avenue, Evanston.

Mrs. Mannerud was formerly of Wilmette and is well-known for her social and civic activities. Her association with Campbell, Inc., is another example of an ever-increasing number of prominent women who are becoming interested in business.

North Shore Soccerites Beat Leaders of League

North Shore Soccerites, victors last weekend over the league-leading McDuffs, will play the Joliet Soccer club at Foster field Sunday afternoon in the second round of the Buda cup competition. The kick-off is scheduled for 2:30 p. m.

Some of the players who were on the sick list last week will be available for the lineup against the Joliet team and should greatly bolster the attack. If the North Shores win this game they will advance to the semi-finals of the Buda cup competition, and with so much in the balance local fans are assured one of the best games of the season.

The soccer club dance will be held at the Community house in Winnetka Saturday evening at 8:30. All interested are invited.

Sorority Opens Estate With Title "Skokie Glen"

Phi Delta Mu sorority opened its 128-acre estate in Northbrook Sunday, November 2. The estate is known as "Skokie Glen" and is a beautifully wooded tract of land. It also has one of the finest stables in Northbrook.

The sorority was organized by Miss Helen Jans, director of athletics at Mallinckrodt high school. The officers for the coming year are Miss Margaret DeMarco, president; Margaret Kelley, vice-president; Betty Lies, secretary. There will be a meeting Wednesday evening at Skokie Glen.

The informal opening of the sorority house was held Wednesday evening, October 29, with a masquerade. More than one hundred members and guests attended. Mrs. Pat Hanley, wife of Northwestern university's coach, and Mrs. Tiny Lewis, whose husband was a well-known Northwestern football star, were hostesses.

Has Your Child Read the Books He Should Read?

The United States Bureau of Education has prepared a list of thirty-six books, which, according to the bureau, should be read by all children before they reach the age of sixteen years. Most of these books, which are listed below, will be on sale at the book fair to be held at the Wilmette Woman's club on Thursday, November 20, Miss Anne L. Whitmack, librarian at the Wilmette Public library, states. The list follows:

- Grimm's Fairy Tales.
- Andersen's Fairy Tales.
- Child's Garden of Verses by Robert Louis Stevenson.
- Dog of Flanders by Ouida.
- Little Lame Prince by Dinah Mulock.
- Water Babies by Charles Kingsley.
- Just So Stories by Rudyard Kipling.
- Heidi by Johanna Spyri.
- Story of Dr. Doolittle by Hugh Lofting.
- Wonderful Adventures of Nils by Selma Lagerlof.
- Alice in Wonderland by Lewis Carroll.
- Tanglewood Tales by Nathaniel Hawthorne.
- Swiss Family Robinson by J. D. Wyss.
- Gulliver's Travels by Jonathan Swift.
- Arabian Nights, edited by Kate Douglas Wiggin & Nora A. Smith.
- The Jungle Book by Rudyard Kipling.
- The Prince and the Pauper by Mark Twain.
- Merry Adventures of Robin Hood by Howard Pyle.
- Uncle Remus, His Songs and Sayings by Joel Chandler Harris.
- Master Skylark by John Bennett.
- Boy's Life of Abraham Lincoln by Helen Nicolay.
- The Man Without a Country by Edward Everett Hale.
- Men of Iron by Howard Pyle.
- The Boy's King Arthur by Sidney Lanier.
- The Story of a Bad Boy by Thomas Bailey Aldrich.
- Tom Sawyer by Mark Twain.
- Huckleberry Finn by Mark Twain.
- Little Women by Louisa M. Alcott.
- Little Men by Louisa M. Alcott.
- Robinson Crusoe by Daniel Defoe.
- Hans Brinker by Mary Mapes Dodge.
- Treasure Island by Robert Louis Stevenson.
- Ivanhoe by Sir Walter Scott.
- Captains Courageous by Rudyard Kipling.
- Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm by Kate Douglas Wiggin.

'Crusading Carrie' to Be Given November 18-20

"Crusading Carrie," by Leslie G. Cameron, will be presented by the Playshop at the School of Speech, Northwestern university, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, November 18, 19 and 20, at 8:30 o'clock.

The story of the play is taken from the incidents of the life of the famous Carrie Nation. The author, who takes the leading part, has been to Carrie Nation's home town to collect personal reminiscences from people still living, who knew her. Important incidents and dialog are taken from her diary, letters and public records. Carrie Nation's favorite songs and hymns, many details of the saloon smashing scene, and her visions, are authentic.

There are over forty speaking parts, fifty character make-ups, and the ballet is trained by Ned Wayburn.