Baptist Church Woman's Society Meeting Today

The Woman's society of the Wilmette Baptist church will meet for luncheon at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon. Members of Link F, of which Mrs. Harry Kerr is chairman, will be the hostesses for the afternoon.

Mrs. W. A. Kendrick has prepared a talk on "Conversational Civics." An attractive musical group has also been arranged. The devotionals will be presented by the reading committee from the book, "Christ's Mould of Prayer," by Francis.

The pre-school children will be cared for during the luncheon hour and in the afternoon.

Catholic Club Group to Have Food Sale

The ways and means committee of the Woman's Catholic club of Wilmette will hold a food sale at the Wilmette Grocery and Market Saturday, November 22. A turkey will be given as a prize. Mrs. P. J. McGurk is acting chairman of the committing during the illness of the chairman, Mrs. Frank Widger. Others in the group are Mesdames Peter Barton, Gardner Callanen, Thomas Chambers, John Downey, M. J. Kelling, William Krippes, J. D. McCue, Walter Miller, William Mooney, C. H. O'Reilly, Alfred J. Ruby, Arthur Wernecke.

Methodist Sunday School Class Organizes, Elects

A group of seventeen young women of Mrs. Raymond Kimbell's Sunday School class of the Wilmette Methodist church met at the home of Miss Grace Roe, 835 Linden avenue, on Thursday evening, November 6, for the purpose of organizing the class. The officers elected were: Miss Grace Roe, president; Miss Margaret Wilen, vice president; Miss Florence Osburn, secretary, Miss Martha Pennington, treasurer. This class meets every Sunday morning at 9:45 o'clock and has invited any young woman to join it.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Foresman, 515 Essex road, Kenilworth left last Sunday for New York where they expect to spend a week or ten days. They will attend the Princeton-Yale football game on Saturday.

Purple-Notre Dame Tickets May Be Yours

A great game—we'll all agree—that contest between the Northwestern Wildcats and the Wisconsin Badgers this Saturday afternoon at Dyche stadium.

And conspicuous among those who are pulling for a grand and glorious time we find three Wilmette residents who are destined to view the pastime as guests of WILMETTE LIFE. They are the winners in the most recent Football Contest conducted by this publication. Here they are:

Edward Mooney, 124 Fourth street, Wilmette.

Mrs. Laura Hill, 917 Sixteenth street, Wilmette.

Jack Allworth, 427 Eighth street, Wilmette.

And listen to this, the next Football Contest will provide free ducat to the Northwestern-Notre Dame game. Read all about it in this issue of WILMETTE LIFE.
