

Ballet Delights
Big Assemblage
at Shawnee Club

Hungary, Russia, Spain, the true home of the dance, the Orient, famous friezes and statues of Greece, and refreshing fancy each contributed its share of influence on the program the Junior ballet of the Chicago Civic Opera company gave very creditably Sunday afternoon of last week at Shawnee Country club. An assemblage of Shawnee and Civic Opera club members filled the ballroom to capacity and necessitated the opening of the doors into the lounge for the second opera club program.

Colorful costumes typical of the country and era interpreted through the ballet and costumes from famous operas gave vivid insight into the touch the ballet gives in the production of opera.

The intensity of emotion found in Latin countries, the lightness and delicacy of the Grecian and the classical ballet, the sensuous grace of the Orient, the carefree and spirited abandon of the folk dance, and the charming whimsically of the fantasy, all were expressed that Sunday.

The ballet ensemble was at its best in the Andalusian dance reminiscent of southern Spain, which closed the program. The charm of "Vana Tanka," the Russian doll dance, as performed by Mary Rodgers and Jarmilla Jandasek, "Puss in Boots" as danced by Miss Rodgers and Ismond Schragger, and the "Orientale," the dance employed by the temple dancing girls of India, were other highlights on the program. In the last Miss Isobel Arnold, premiere danseuse, who appeared in several solo numbers, showed her talent and her ability at their best.

Miss Ruth Gordon, able pianist, played several solos between dances, as well as the incidental music to which the ballet danced. A firmness and clearness of touch as well as a fine sense of rhythm distinguished her playing.

Jack and Jill to Sing and Play at "Blue Bird"

A sold-out house the opening Saturday morning of "The Blue Bird," Maeterlinck's beloved play, promises well for the new season of the Chicago Junior league's children's theater. Presented at 10:30 o'clock each Saturday morning at the Selwyn theater, by a talented group of Junior league actresses, the production will do its bit for charity. "Jack and Jill," as they are known at the Junior league, but who really are Miss Louise Badgerow of Winnetka and Mrs. George Haskell of Evanston, will entertain the children during the intermission at each performance. Miss Badgerow, who sings, and Mrs. Haskell, who plays, will consider requests for children's favorite numbers if they are sent in addressed to Jack and Jill, Chicago Junior League offices, Drake hotel.

Miss Emily Pope is making a great success of her part. An attractive ballet also is woven into the play.

Mrs. Israel H. Chilcott of 234 Sheridan road, Kenilworth, entertained at luncheon and bridge at the Edgewater Beach hotel on Monday of this week.

Mrs. Harry G. Phillips
Next I. C. Club Hostess

Mrs. Harry G. Phillips, 1609 Ridge avenue, Evanston, was hostess to the International club of the National College of Education at her home on Thursday evening, November 13, at 8 o'clock.

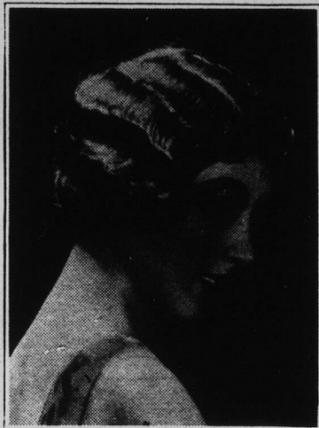

Mrs. Phillips is one of the club's sustaining members, a group of seventy women, most of whom are Evanston and north shore residents. The active membership is comprised of seventeen students from foreign lands and an equal number of American sisters. The associate members, eighty-four "National" graduates, are many of them in foreign lands. The latest addition to the Junior membership is John Allan Salve, a month-old East Indian whom Dorothy Allen of Harding House, Sholapur, India, an associate member, has taken as her protégé. The club will assist Miss Allen in the support of this young Musselman orphan whose father's name was Salve.
