

TO HOLD FESTIVAL

St. Francis Foundation to Present Elaborate Project at Georgian Hotel

Varied festivities including five features, any one of which is a big project in itself, will compose the ambitious charity venture to be sponsored by the St. Francis Hospital foundation Wednesday, Dec. 3, at the Georgian hotel. Beginning at 2 and continuing until late at night, there will be bridge and bunco, a style show, flower exhibit and a merchandise sale with a dinner between the afternoon and evening programs.

This festival will be the one major event to be sponsored by the foundation this year in order to benefit the lying-in fund of St. Francis' hospital. Numerous Catholic organizations of Evanston and the north shore, affiliated with the foundation, are co-operating in this project, which it is hoped will equal the several ventures of the last few years in support of the hospital.

To Extend Through Hotel

Virtually every public room of the Georgian hotel has been turned over to the foundation for the festival. In the parlors there will be cards both afternoon and evening, while bunco will be played in the library. The style show and flower exhibit will be held in the foyer, and dinner will be served in the main dining room.

The festival bazaar will be held in the ballroom, which will be fringed with decorated booths, featuring dolls, sporting goods, handkerchiefs, blankets, toys, lingerie, hosiery and candy. A food booth will be conducted by the Knights of Columbus, and the Nurses Alumnae association will have charge of the candy sales. Light refreshments will be sold during afternoon and evening.

A group of the members' daughters, Miss Anne Flannigan, Miss Frances Jones, Miss Mary Carnall, Miss Katherine Carnall and Miss Betty Sackett, will act as models for the style show. The doll booth will be in charge of Mrs. Napoleon Picard. Mrs. R. Shekely, Mrs. Richard Burns and Mrs. Armstrong.

To Be in Charge

Mrs. William Schilding, president Evanston Catholic Woman's club, will be in charge of the dinner, assisted by Mrs. N. P. Anderson and Mrs. John Lanigan. The bridge party will be in charge of Mrs. Matthew Lillig in the afternoon and Mrs. L. L. Schram in the evening, with Mrs. Sidney F. Beach and Mrs. August Kruzekamp assisting. Miss Anna Weiland will have charge of the bunco games. Mrs. Frederick Clark will be chairman of the refreshment committee, assisted by Mrs. Roger Sinclair, Mrs. T. W. Trudeau, Mrs. Robert Schott, Mrs. C. C. Carpenter and Mrs. Frederick Hubsch.

In general charge of arrangements is Mrs. Frank Jones, president of the foundation since its organization, and among her committee chairmen are Mrs. N. P. Anderson, ways and means; Mrs. Joseph Schaeffer, merchandise booths; Mrs. William Schneider, electric booth, and James Corcoran, Joseph Schaeffer and Edward Arnold of the Knights of Columbus.

Harold Hurtt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil H. Hurtt of 708 Park avenue, returned from the University of Wisconsin accompanied by two of his classmates, to spend a recent weekend with his parents. He and his guests attended the Northwestern-Wisconsin game.

President

Star Scout William Lehle of Troop 4, St. Augustine's church, Wilmette, was elected president of the North Shore Boy Scout Area council Press club, at the meeting of the district editors held last week. The Press club is made up of all troop reporters in each of the sixty troops in the eleven districts of the North Shore Area council. The district editors meet monthly under the leadership of President Lehle. The troop reporters meet weekly in their districts with the district editors to get news articles from every troop every week. Kenneth Vetter of Deerfield was elected secretary. Both Scouts have earned their Journalism Merit Badge.

HOSTESS TO SPOKE

Mrs. George C. Lowell of 900 Ashland avenue was hostess to the members of Spoke 7 of the Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Lewis, Jr., of 610 Washington avenue have their sister-in-law, Mrs. C. J. Embree of St. Louis, Mo., as their house guest. Mrs. Embree is also visiting her daughter, Mary, who attends Northwestern. Mrs. Embree and her daughter spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Lewis. They also had as their guests that day Mr. and Mrs. Donald Scott of Short Hills, N. J. Mrs. Scott is Mrs. Lewis' sister and the Scott family formerly made their home in Evanston.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lindblad of 720 Greenwood avenue entertained at a family dinner on Thanksgiving.
