In "Holiday" at Shawnee

Phillip Barry's "Holiday" will be presented by the Players guild of Evanston at Shawnee Country club Friday evening, December 12. The "leading lady" of the show, which will be a comedy of manners, will be Miss Peggy Davis, a Shawnee member, who is to play the part of Linda Seton. Opposite her in the role of leading man will be Mervin Severance as Johnny Case.

Another Shawnee member, Myrtle Torcom, plays an important part. She is cast as Julia Seton, the sister. The brother, Ned Seton, is to be done by Bert Morrison, and the father, Edward Seton, by Hugh Hipple.

Marion Hoffman will be seen as Susan Cotter and Charles Palmer as her husband, Nick Cotter. Catherine Swihart will be Laura Cram, cousin. Henry Burnett is to present Seton Cram, her husband; John Walker is Henry, the butler, and Ruth Doyle is the maid, Delia.

The production shows expert work on the part of the players themselves and on the part of the director, Melita Skiller. Peggy Davis is well known in Shawnee circles as both an actress and a director.

Willburt Lowry is stage manager. Ellen Williamson is in charge of properties; Bert Morrison and Eugenia Moore have charge of settings. Mrs. Edwin G. Booz is chairman of the publicity committee, and Mrs. C. M. Hardin, Mrs. Milton Harper, and Mrs. C. D. Lowry, Jr., are members of the business committee.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Alder with their daughters, Betty and Marie, returned the first of the week from Manitowoc, Wis., where they had been passing the Thanksgiving holidays.
