

Library Has New Adventure Books for Boy Readers

The Wilmette Public library always has on hand a large number of books of special interest to youthful readers. Miss Anne L. Whitmack, librarian, announced this week that the library has eleven new adventure books for boys. She has summarized the contents of these books briefly as follows:

Young Trallars by Altsheler. A boy's life in the early days of Kentucky. He hunts, fights Indians, is captured and released, and in the end saves the settlement from massacre.

Frank Brown: Sea Apprentice by Bullen. A mutiny, a fire and a tornado are among the exciting experiences of an English boy who shipped as a sea-apprentice and rose to second and first mate.

Adventures of Billy Topsail by Duncan. A fisher lad's hardy life in bleak Newfoundland, his dog companion, Skipper, his encounters with icebergs, whales, seals, and, best of all, his adventures in carrying Her Majesty's mail.

Courageous Companions by Finger. This is a story of Magellan's journey around the world, and of an English youth's participation in it.

Story of Rolf and the Viking's Bow by French. A noble tale of Iceland in its heroic age, with the theme of a family feud. It brings out motives of treachery and high honor, of cunning and love of truth, of steadfast purpose and revenge.

Ranch on the Oxhide by Inman. Pioneer days in Kansas with General Custer and Buffalo Bill among the characters.

Famous Cavalry Leaders by Johnston. Fifteen heroes of sabre, spear and saddle, among whom are Attila, the Scourge of God; Gustavus Adolphus, Lion of the North; Marshal New, Napoleon's bravest general, and Phil Sheridan, Daredevil.

Trumpeter of Krakow by Kelly. A story of Poland in the fifteenth century full of adventure and mystery.

Masterman Ready by Marryat. How the shipwrecked Seagrave family with the help of the good seaman, Masterman Ready, was able to live a year on an uninhabited island. A never-to-be-forgotten hero.

Black Arrow by Stevenson. The vengeance of John Amend-All and his followers, outlaws in the days of Richard of Gloucester.

Two Arrows by Stoddard. How an Indian boy saved his camp from famine and won his name of Two Arrows.

Older Girls Are Helping to Direct Gym Classes

Five of the older girls at the Joseph Sears school in Kenilworth, Louise Watson, Jean Cosner, Ruth Forster, Edith Gillette and Aurica Simon, are helping Miss Gertrude Herrick, assistant athletic director at the school, in the Tuesday afternoon girls' gymnasium classes for the third, fourth and fifth grades.

ANNOUNCE MARRIAGE

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest F. Hardt of 1624 Walnut avenue, Wilmette, announce the marriage of their daughter, Eleanor Louise, to Frank John Altman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Altman of Chicago. The wedding took place at the home of the bride on March 7. After a three weeks' motor trip through the south, Mr. and Mrs. Altman will make their home at 132 Clyde avenue, Evanston.

Mrs. Edward D. Struven, returned to her home at 112 Linden avenue last week from the Women's and Children's hospital, Chicago, where she had been under observation for two weeks. She is now greatly improved.

Mrs. George Edward Walk of 1240 Lake avenue left yesterday for Lawrence, Kas., to make a visit of several weeks with her mother, Mrs. John W. Lawson.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kroschel, 2483 Pomona road, entertained at a large family dinner party at their home last Monday.

Many Children Attend Story Hour Saturday

An unusually large number of children attended the children's story hour at the Wilmette Public library last Saturday morning, Miss Anne L. Whitmack, librarian, reports. Every chair in the children's room at the library was filled. Miss Marion Orseifen of Kenilworth, who has been conducting the children's story hours for several weeks, was in charge. She will conduct the story hour again this Saturday, March 21, at 10:30 o'clock.

MOTHER DIES

Mrs. W. J. Farquharson, who had made her home with her daughter, Mrs. A. P. Ogilvie, 318 Greenleaf avenue, died on March 4, at the age of 64 after an illness of five months. Interment was at Detroit, Mrs. Farquharson's former home.
