

Edgar A. Stevens, Inc., suggests, for Easter Wear,

The Tailored Suit

Such a suit, perfectly tailored, is especially a wise investment for the woman who owns a separate fur scarf. The suit shown is of Covert Cloth, at $29.50.

Other suits of similar type may be had for as little as $22.50. To wear with it there is

THE GIGLIO SAILOR

A dull, rough-straw hat with a flat brim; a very new effect. The quite startling difference of this tailored hat lends distinction to a simply tailored costume. $10—in black, skipper blue, brown and beige.

The Afternoon Suit

Fine black silk crepe, with a lacy lingerie blouse and a little bolero. A charming model that includes in its details several of the more important fashion points of the year. $49.50.

THE DRAPED STRAW HAT

Pebble Ramie, supple enough to drape in sweeping lines, this model is representative of the afternoon hats at Edgar A. Stevens. $10.

Smart Accessories

AT UNEXPECTEDLY
LOW PRICES

SHEER INGRAIN HOSE

Clear and closely-woven, these gossamer-sheer stockings have been chosen for you in the very newest neutral tones: Ali Baba, Opal, Ebony, Gray and Blossom. $2.95 value

$1.95

DENT'S MOUSQUETAIRES

Six-button-length kid gloves with the ample cuffs required by the tailleur mode. Black, eggshell and white. Special at $3.95

Dent's 4-button kid slippers in black, white and eggshell, $2.95.

D'ORSAY'S LE DANDY

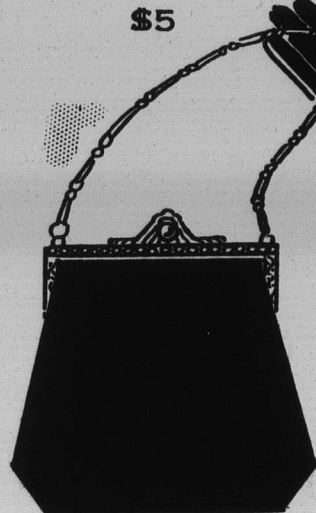

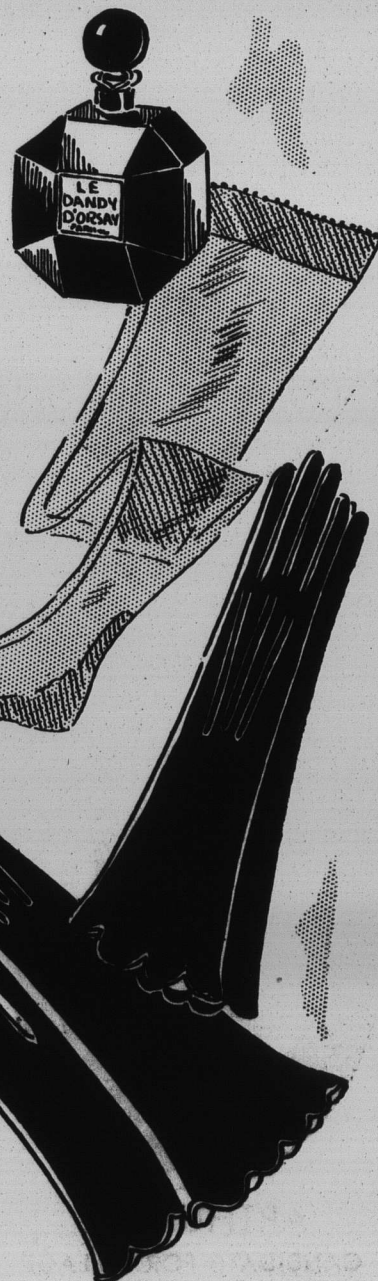

A modern sort of scent for the woman of the tailored type. Imported from France, in original bottles, at $2 $4.50

CREPE BAGS

Envelopes and pouches; the one shown has a pearl-studded trinity frame.

$5

Edgar A. Stevens, Inc.
1624 ORRINGTON AVENUE
EVANSTON