Wilmette Resident Is on Trip Around World

Miss Mollie McNamara of Wilmette, who is making a cruise around the world on the Red Star liner Belgenland, arrived at Bangkok, Siam, on February 23, last, after a pleasant journey through tropic seas from Manila, Philippine Islands.

Since word was last received from Miss McNamara, she has visited Japan, where glorious Spring-like weather was encountered, and where stops were made at the principal ports of Yokohama and Kobe, with trips inland to Nikko, Kamakura, Nara and Kyoto, and Tokyo. By special permission of the Japanese government a special stop was made at Miyajima, the sacred island where there are no rickshaws, autos, gasoline, births or deaths.

The Belgenland reached the port of Chinwangtao on February 4, where the party entrained for Peiping (ex-Peking), for a stay of four days in the world's most ancient capital. The next call was at Shanghai, thence to Hong Kong, the "harbor magnificent" of the Far East.

Manila was reached on the morning of February 18, and during a reception given at Malacanang palace Miss McNamara shook hands with Governor Dwight W. Davis.

Among the Belgenland's passengers is Douglas Fairbanks, Victor M. Fleming, motion-picture director, and Her Royal Highness the Princess de Braganza, Duchess of Oporto.

Young Baritone Charms Audience at The Neighbors

Charles Baron Fleischmann, baritone, was soloist at the meeting of The Neighbors of Kenilworth Tuesday afternoon last. His voice, rich, sympathetic and of a volume warm and full, was displayed to advantage in the two groups of songs he announced as his program:

- I Four Old Ballads
Bois Epais (1664, French)
Slighted Swain (Old English)
Turn Ye to Me (Old Highland Melody)
A Sailor Loved a Lass (Old English)
- II Valentin's Aria from "Faust"
(Even Bravest Hearts)
Where the Tizza's Torrents Swell
Don Juan Serenade
..... Tschaikowsky

In response to the enthusiasm of his audience, he sang as encores "Il Neige," and "Sylvia," the latter by Olney Speaks.

Comments of praise followed his singing, comments which said there was beauty in his voice and which foretold for him a future.

Mr. Fleischmann's accompanist, Miss Blanche Barbot, displayed fine musicianship in the responsive support she gave him.

The remainder of the afternoon's program was given over to interesting talks of philanthropic work done at the Park Ridge School for Girls, and by the Infant Welfare. Miss Ruby Badger, representing the former, explained just what her organization is doing, and Miss Sara Place superintendent, told of the widespread activity of the Infant Welfare Society of Chicago.

Miss Anna Belle Ferrier, who was to have described the work and aims of Arden Shore camp, was unable to be present Tuesday because of illness.
