

Churches Invite Worshipers to Easter Services

St. Augustine's

The services on Easter Sunday will be Holy Communion at 6 a. m., 8 a. m., and 11 a. m. The two earlier services will be plain, without music or sermon; the 11 o'clock service will be a Festival service with special Easter music and short sermon.

The Children's Easter Flower Service will be held in the church Easter Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The children will bring flowers to decorate a huge Easter Cross in the chancel. They will also bring their Lenten savings and deposit them at the foot of the Cross. The Girls' Vested Choir will have special music for the occasion.

Last night (Maundy Thursday) the Girls' Vested Choir and quartet provided a special program of sacred music. They also provided the same program on Tuesday evening at the Church of the Holy Comforter, Kenilworth, under the leadership of Miss Winnifred Mickey.

Today, Good Friday, there will be the regular Three-Hour Memorial service in the church, from 12 to 3, during the three hours in which Our Lord hung upon the Cross. The three hours will be divided into seven periods, each with a short devotional address and special hymns and prayers. Those wishing to attend can enter and leave as they please, especially at the beginning and close of each period.

At 8 p. m. the Boys' Vested Choir will sing the sacred cantata, "The Story of the Cross."

Tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 (Easter Eve), in the church, there will be a special service of Holy Baptism for infants, children, and adults. Names which have not already been given to the Rector should be sent to him at once.

On Easter Monday and Easter Tuesday there will be Holy Communion at 9 a. m.

Tuesday evening, April 7, in the Rector's office, there will be a meeting of the Acolytes' Guild.

There will be no session of the Church schools Easter Sunday morning, as the children will be attending their Easter Flower Service at 4 p. m. the same day.

Potted lilies and other flowers are greatly needed by the Altar Guild to help in the decoration of the church. If a card be attached with the name of the owner all potted plants will be kept after Easter until called for.

First Congregational

John G. Hindley, minister
J. Clair Mead, Director of Religious Education

This Friday evening at 7:45 o'clock a union Good Friday service will be held in the Methodist church. There will be music by the Methodist church choir, and Mr. Hindley will give the pulpit message. His subject will be, "The Cross and the Glory."

The morning worship service on Easter Sunday will begin at 10:45 o'clock. Mr. Hindley will conclude his series of sermons on "Livable Beliefs," taking as his subject, "What Can We Believe. Today About the Future Life?" The quartet and choir will sing Easter music.

The Church school will meet in four departments as follows:

Primary (grades 1, 2, and 3): 9:30 to 12 a. m.
Junior (grades 4, 5, and 6): 9:30 to 10:45 a. m.
Intermediate (grades 7 and 8): 9:30 to 10:45 a. m.
Beginners (pre-school): 10:45 to 12 a. m.

All departments below the high school age-group will observe the Easter day with special department services. It is the aim of the church school officers and teachers to present a vital, wholesome meaning of the Easter season in a manner adapted to the particular age-groups.

A Vesper service will be held at 4:30 Sunday afternoon, at which time new members will be received into the church. The Covenant class and those of the high school department joining the church are requested to meet at 4:10 p. m. in the church parlor. This will give time for explanation of the service and the final meeting concerning church membership.

The final meeting of the Sunday Evening club for this year will be held next Sunday at 7:30 p. m. in this church. Robert Maynard Hutchins, president of the University of Chicago, will be the speaker.

The high school young people will not meet next Sunday evening but will continue with these late afternoon gatherings on April 12th. On Easter Sunday there will be no separate departmental service for high school young people, but all will attend the regular morning worship service at 10:45.

On Monday, at 12:30 o'clock, the North End Circle will meet for luncheon at the home of Mrs. Bruce Owens, 714 Elmwood avenue. Mrs. C. P. Berg will give a talk on the scenery, customs, and flowers of Norway. Mrs. H. A. Craig, Mrs. W. J. King, and Mrs. R. F. Kolb will be the assisting hostesses.

The East End Circle will hold its April meeting in the church parlor next Monday. Luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock. The hostesses are Mrs. J. C. Capen, Mrs. E. J. McIlraith, and Mrs. Marguerite C. Taylor.

The Mid-week meeting is held in the church parlor at 8 p. m. on Wednesday. Next Wednesday Mr. Hindley will lead the meeting in a consideration of "The Practical Value of a Belief in Immortality."

The meetings for parents on the religious training and guidance of children will begin Monday evening, April 13. It is requested that those mothers and fathers interested call the church office, so that definite arrangements can be made.

Scout Troop No. 2 enjoyed a two-day and night excursion last week to the Cabin-in-the-woods. Taking advantage of the vacation time, these boys under the leadership of Frank A. Wilson hiked to the Forest Preserve, where fun and work were combined in their Scout activities and test-passing.

The next Cub Pack meeting for Pack 63 will be held Saturday morning, April 11. It is expected that every Den will report many tests passed and that there will be a representative from every Den to receive the rank advancement badge.

Kenilworth Episcopal

Church of the Holy Comforter

Kenilworth
Leland H. Danforth, rector
Easter day, April 5, the services of this church will be as usual, the celebration of the Holy Communion at 8 o'clock and the second Celebration, with special music and a sermon by the rector of this parish, at 11 o'clock.

There will be no session of the Church school at 9:30 o'clock on Easter Day. Instead, the children are asked to attend the 11 o'clock service with their parents and enjoy the special music which has been prepared by the choir.

The last of the Lenten services for the children, called The King's Ship, will be held on Easter Eve at 4 o'clock.

On the Sunday after Easter at 11 o'clock, the children will have a service of their own. One of the features of this service will be the catechizing of the children on the material they have been studying the last few months.

Kenilworth Union

Kenilworth avenue and Warwick road
Dr. Herbert L. Willett, minister

Dr. Willett's subject Sunday, April 5, will be a sermon appropriate to Easter. The service will be at 11 o'clock.

The Easter Sunday school service will be held in the Culbertson gymnasium at 10 o'clock. All are invited to attend this special service of Easter music and scripture.

There will be no further meetings of the Women's Guild, last Monday's luncheon closing the work for the season. At the annual spring dinner of the church which will be held sometime during the month of April there will be an exhibit of the work done by the women during the past year.

There is some indecision as to whether there will be any further Wednesday evening lectures after the one of Wednesday, April 1, on "Mormonism." Watch the church bulletin of next Sunday for definite announcement.

At Sunday Club

(Angelica King Photo)

Dr. Robert Maynard Hutchins, president of the University of Chicago, will address the Wilmette Sunday Evening club Easter night in the First Congregational church. The program will mark the closing of the 16th season of the club.

New Minister Preaches at Community Services

The Rev. John G. Hindley is to preach at 7:45 o'clock Friday evening, April 3, at the Wilmette Parish Methodist church and the choir will sing "The Crucifixion." All other churches in the village not having special services on Good Friday evening have been invited to attend this service. The Rev. Mr. Hindley is the new pastor of the Wilmette Congregational church.

RECONCILIATION TOURS

"The Present Day Problems of Labor" will be the objective for the Reconciliation tourists who visit Chicago Saturday, April 4, according to Dr. Frank Orman Beck, conductor of the tours. The itinerary will include visits to the Amalgamated Center, headquarters of the Clothing Workers of America; Chase House; National Socialist headquarters; headquarters of I. W. W.; and a journey to "Hobo Land at Night."

U. OF C. HEAD AT SUNDAY CLUB

Dr. Robert Maynard Hutchins to Give Final Address of Season Easter Sunday

Dr. Robert Maynard Hutchins, president of the University of Chicago, will give the closing address of the sixteenth season of the Wilmette Sunday Evening club Easter Sunday, April 5.

Dr. Hutchins is the fifth president of the University of Chicago. His election to succeed Max Mason, who resigned to become director of the Division of Natural Sciences of the Rockefeller Foundation and later president of the Foundation, was announced by the Board of Trustees April 25, 1929.

At the time of his election to the presidency of the University of Chicago, Mr. Hutchins was dean of the Law School of Yale university. He had a remarkably brilliant career at Yale, as an undergraduate and as a student in the Law school, and then as an administrator. He received his A. B. degree from Yale in 1921. In 1923, after two years as master at the Lake Placid school, New York, and study also at the Yale Law school, he was appointed, while still a law student, secretary of Yale university, succeeding Anson Phelps Stokes. He graduated from the Law school in 1925. After graduation, he taught in the Law school, becoming a full time professor in 1926, but retaining the secretaryship of the university. In 1927 he was appointed acting-dean of the Law school, and the next year was appointed dean.

President at 30

His election as president of the University of Chicago at the age of 30 created wide interest, but the action of the board was virtually a repetition of early university history, for the first president, William Rainey Harper, also a Yale graduate and faculty member, was but 34 years old when he became president of the university, then nothing but a plan.

President Hutchins comes of old New England ancestry and of a family that is active in education. His father, William James Hutchins, graduate of Yale and the Union and Oberlin Theological seminaries, is president of Berea college, Kentucky. His mother, Anna Laura Murch Hutchins, is a graduate of Mt. Holyoke college. A younger brother, Francis S. Hutchins, 27 years old, is head of "Yale-In-China," and an older brother, William, is a master in the Westminster school, Simsbury, Conn.

The president was born in Brooklyn, January 17, 1899. He studied at Oberlin academy, graduating in 1915, and then went to Oberlin college for two years, entering the ambulance service of the United States in 1917. He served with the ambulance corps until 1919, and was with the Italian army in 1918-19. The Italian government decorated him with the Croce di Guerra for bravery under fire.

After the war, he resumed his studies, entering Yale.

Wins High Honors

While an undergraduate, Mr. Hutchins was captain of the Yale debating team, member of Alpha Delta Phi fraternity, of the Elizabethan club and the senior society of Wolf's Head. Among his undergraduate honors were election to Phi Beta Kappa, honorary scholastic fraternity, and to Delta Sigma Rho, honorary debating society. He won the DeForest prize for "that member of the senior class who writes and pronounces an English oration in the best manner," a prize won by his father also. As an undergraduate, the young Hutchins was entirely self-supporting.
