

Play April 10, 11, Benefits New Church Building Fund

Your Uncle Dudley Makes Bow Tonight at Woman's Club

Tonight all roads lead to the Wilmette Woman's club and all theatrical-minded Wilmette is falling into line to witness the initial presentation of that happy, human comedy, "Your Uncle Dudley." The slogan of "Laugh with Uncle Dudley" has been promptly adopted throughout the north shore and a capacity house is expected for tonight's performance. An "all-star" cast has been assembled under the direction of Paul H. Fieberg, the last finishing touches have been put on, and it is expected that this group will give a glowing account of itself at tonight's and tomorrow night's performances.

The play is under the auspices of the Woman's Catholic club of Wilmette and is given for the benefit of the new St. Francis Xavier church. The cast includes Robert Wieland, John A. Ronan, Mrs. Charles Broad, Miss Mary Daegling, Miss Marion Ortseifen, Mrs. Marshall C. Kearney, Hollis Gleason, and Paul H. Fieberg.

There will be a matinee today at 3 o'clock for the children, and the evening performance will begin at 8:15. The second evening performance is to be given tomorrow at 8:15 at the Woman's club, Tenth street and Greenleaf avenue, Wilmette.

The girls of the Junior membership will sell candy during the intermissions and Joseph Lechner and Edward Cunningham and their assistants are serving as ushers. Vincent Seng and his nine piece All-Suburban orchestra, are furnishing the music for both evenings.

Thomas Ross, who has taken a very personal interest in this venture, is trying to arrange his plans so as to be present at the opening performance.

The executive staff includes Edwin Georger, prompter; A. W. Boylston, stage manager; Frank X. Thale, lighting effects; Mrs. A. W. Boylston, properties; Mrs. Samuel Moore, church building fund chairman; Mrs. Paul H. Fieberg, chairman of the advertising program; Mrs. Marshall V. Kearney, fine arts chairman, and Mrs. Frank X. Thale, president of the club.

Style Show, Music, Tea Guild Benefit Wednesday

Mrs. George H. Bird of 1010 Chestnut avenue, Wilmette, is opening her home next Wednesday afternoon from 2 until 5, for a fashion show and tea for the benefit of the work of the Woman's guild of St. Augustine's Episcopal church. Paul Mallory, well known tenor who is extremely popular with woman's club audiences and who is distinguished for his oratorio and concert work, will sing during the afternoon and at the close of the fashion show, refreshments will be served. A group of Northwestern University girls will be models.

Mrs. Perry L. Smithers is chairman of the ways and means committee of the guild which is sponsoring the affair.

Tea Hostess Today

Mrs. Clara Righter Drake, 1221 Ashland avenue, will be hostess at a tea this afternoon for her house guest, Miss Ethel Reardon of Lincolnville, Maine.

Margaret Whitsett Becomes Bride of Robert MacNeille

Amid a profusion of Easter lilies and tall candelabra filled with lighted tapers, and backed by palms and ferns, Miss Margaret Helen Whitsett of Wilmette became the bride of Robert Arthur MacNeille of Glencoe on Saturday, April 4. The wedding ceremony was read by Dr. D. H. Cornell, pastor of the Glencoe Union church, who was assisted by the Dr. Horace G. Smith of the Wilmette Methodist Episcopal church, where the wedding took place at 8:30, followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Whitsett, 830 Oakwood avenue, Wilmette.

The bride's gown was of deep ivory satin made along distinctive lines. Her veil was held in place by her mother's coronet head-dress of Renaissance lace, and lavender orchids and white sweet peas made up her bridal bouquet.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. John Robert Murray of Saskatoon, Canada, the former Coralee Whitsett, who wore a gown of pink, while the maid of honor, the groom's sister, Miss Harriette MacNeille, wore the contrasting shade of blue. The bridesmaids, the Misses Carolyn Colby of Montclair, N. J.; Inez Webster of Kenilworth; Barbara Coxe of La Grange; Frances Nicholas of Evanston, and Gert-rude Winzenberg of Wilmette, wore frocks of pink with blue accessories. All the attendants carried old fashioned bouquets.

Attending his brother as best man was Walter MacNeille, and the ushers included Ralph Whitsett, brother of the bride, David Dunning Brown of Chicago and Merrill Greer also of Chicago; John Innes of La Grange, and John Pope of Glencoe.

The home of the bride was decorated with spring flowers for the wedding reception.

Mrs. MacNeille wore a traveling suit of skipper blue, trimmed in white fur; a matching hat and purse, and a corsage of roses and lilies of the valley.

The bride and groom have sailed on the S. S. Bremen for a four months' wedding trip abroad, which is the wedding gift of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence T. MacNeille of Glencoe. They will arrive at Cherbourg and visit France, Italy, Germany, and Switzerland, and sail from Liverpool, England to Montreal, Canada from where they will return to make their home in Evanston.

Engaged

Mrs. John B. Smallpage of Evanston announces the engagement of her daughter, Margaret, to Carlton L. Banker, son of the Edward H. Bankers of Evanston. Miss Smallpage, a graduate of Northwestern university and a member of Delta Gamma sorority, is an instructor of mathematics at New Trier High school. Mr. Banker attended the University of Illinois and was graduated from Northwestern university law school. He is a member of Sigma Chi fraternity.
