Public Forum

Editor, WILMETTE LIFE:

Both candidates in our recent local election are prominent in their respective denominations and local church enterprises. Now is our opportunity, whether a member of the Public Welfare party or of the Civic party, to bury the hatchet of unfriendly or unkind destructive criticism and rally to the support of the high ideals of our respective leaders to help make Wilmette a village of Christian homes by supporting, next Sunday, the churches of our community. In doing this we will show our leaders we are as loyal in the support of their high religious ideals as we were in our support of their civic principles.

A schedule of the services of our churches appear on the church page of WILMETTE LIFE and we urge every member of each party to attend and to help sustain the church of his preference.
