

The local craftsmen and merchants whose advertisements appear on these pages, offer a specialized service. And it is to your distinct advantage to have your cleaning, decorating, planting and repairing done early—while they are prepared to give you exclusive attention—before the usual spring rush sets in.

Our Customers' Confidence

Is shown by the many men and women who come to us season after season for their clothes. We are proud that our superior knowledge of fashion and the tailoring art has satisfied our patrons.

We specialize in relining, repairing and remodeling garments at prices impressively reasonable. Come in and be convinced yourself.

Are You Decorating?

Good taste in decorating calls for understanding use of color and not necessarily lavish expenditure of money for fine furnishings.
