St. Francis P. T. A.

The final meeting of the St. Francis' Parent-Teacher association took place last Tuesday at 2 o'clock in the school hall. The meeting was very well attended and the president, Mrs. Russell Flood, was very well pleased with the splendid attendance.

The officers of the coming year were elected. Mrs. John Tracey was elected president; Mrs. Warren A. Clohisy, first vice-president; Mrs. Daniel J. Coyne, second vice-president; Mrs. Alca Chubb, recording secretary; Mrs. William R. Mooney, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. H. E. Lersch, treasurer.

Before the meeting Mrs. Russell Flood entertained her officers and the members of the board at a delightful spring luncheon at the Shawnee club.

The first part of the meeting was taken up with the reading of the annual reports. The reports were gratifying and showed that the board members and the association had accomplished a great number of things, some of which were: providing the school with a very substantial and well built bicycle rack, a new encyclopedia, wall sockets for each room in the school, and with the financial aid of Mrs. John Boylston, a very fine radio. The association also gave the Superior money to buy a few new picture and additional supplementary books for the different grades.

Miss Mary Kelly, the speaker for the afternoon, congratulated the women on the work they had done and the results they had achieved. She praised the spirit and the splendid cooperation of the members that made all these things possible.

Miss Kelly, of necessity, had to make her talk a little short because so much time had been consumed in reading the reports. She was a very forceful speaker and gave a rather illuminating talk on concentrated and abstract ways of dealing with children's problems. The main point she tried to demonstrate was that when a parent has to punish the child she must punish him and endeavor to make him see just why she is punishing him for that particular breach of discipline. Her talk was all too short and the members hope that some day soon, they will have the pleasure of hearing Miss Kelly more in detail.

The Superior of the school thanked the women for their earnest efforts and joined them in the social half hour.

Mrs. A. J. Dixon Is New President of Woman's Club

By R. L. P.

Mrs. Arthur J. Dixon was elected president of the Woman's club of Wilmette on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Ernest H. Freeman was elected vice-president; Mrs. Frederic R. Kilmer, recording secretary, and Mrs. C. Warren Cozzens was elected treasurer for one year to fill a vacancy.

Mrs. Ralph T. Huff was elected chairman of the art department; Mrs. Ray Warren, chairman for the child and home department; Mrs. Charles N. Evans, chairman for music; and Mrs. A. E. Klunder, chairman of the philanthropy department.

On standing committees Mrs. John F. Weedon was elected for the bulletin, Mrs. Luther W. Benson for ways and means, and Mrs. Minerva E. Kraft for junior advisor.

The club closed its year with a program of much interest. Hans Hess, a cellist with an enviable reputation, was heard in two groups. The suave, firmly knit tone which he pulls out of the strings was most beautiful in Godard's "Sur le Lac" and "Le Cygne," by Saint-Saens. Cyril Scott's "Lullaby" was also notable for the mood he created with his famous Bergonzi cello. In Frescobaldi's "Toccat" his tone was lyric and vibrant, and the audience enjoyed it exceedingly. More dramatic compositions, such as "La Playera" and "Intermezzo" by Granados, had a fervent, lilting beauty. His excellent command of technique was demonstrated in Popper's "Elfin Dance."

Valborg Sinkler completely captivated her audience with her charming personality and stunning appearance in seventeenth and eighteenth century costumes. She makes a picture never to be forgotten, and she speaks with vivaciousness and with a twinkle of mischief in her eyes. She presented an episode from the life of Nell Gwynne, recreating that Irish lady's fiery spirit to the delight of everyone. Then she gave a dramatic interpretation of Amy Lowell's "Patterns," to the soft musical background of Beethoven's "Moonlight Sonata." Both episodes were very effective and picturesque. She gave several short sketches as encores, proving herself a unique and expert dramatic artist.
