Consolation Winners

Winners of the consolation league of women's basketball were the N.T.S. team members who were presented with a trophy. Playing on the team during the season were: Dorothy Volman, Jean Munro, Olive Billmuck, Marjorie Paterson, Eleanor Shanahan, Elsie von Reinsperg and Marion Iverson.

Balls were also presented to the 1930 playground ball league winners in the girls' leagues, which also went to the Schulz & Nord team including Alice Nord, Jane Krier, Lorraine O'Shea, Elizabeth Clifford, Florence Clifford, Elsie Paterson, Ruby Hartman, Ethel Keenor and Vera Johnson.

Honorable mention was given to Hoffman Florists men's team, who were runners-up in every league entered during the year, including junior basketball league, senior horse shoe league, volleyball league, winner of the consolation basketball tournament. The team was the only one administering a defeat to the Baptist volleyball team in three years.

Bruins Are Honored

The Bruins basketball team also received special mention. The members finished at the head of the Junior men's basketball league and were entitled to gold balls. However, they were unable to be present and will be awarded the basketballs later. Members of the team are: John Moore, captain, Lloyd Onion, Lawrence Langdon, Don Langdon, Paul Langdon, James Lawton, Gordon Bucholz, and George Stone.

The Schultz & Nord team, winner of the senior men's basketball league will also be given awards later. The team members are: Robert Nord, captain, Robert McLean, John Borncamp, Eugene Hardt, Joe Berol and Marshall Ling.

For the first time year-round trophies were awarded to a girls team having the highest average in a competitive point system for year-round competition.

The trophy was awarded for the first time to the Schultz & Nord team, which won first place in three different sports. The second place trophy went to the N. T. S. team which won second place in every sport entered with the exception of basketball and was winner of the consolation league of that sport.

LET CONTRACT

A contract for the installation of storm sewer connections in Lockerbie street between Glenview road and Central street was let to the Cannell Conrad Construction company Tuesday night by the Wilmette Board of Local Improvements. The cost of the improvement will be $1,056.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hammond of 500 Gregory avenue have had as their guests for a few days, their daughter, Mrs. Edward B. Raub, and her small daughter, Marilyn, of Lafayette, Ind. Mr. and Mrs. Hammond just recently returned from a short stay at French Lick Springs, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Plumer, who were married March 21, at the home of Mrs. Plumer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Ridgway, of Kenilworth, have returned from a month's wedding trip to Bermuda and are now making their home at 135 Suffolk road, Chestnut Hill, Mass. Mrs. Plumer is the former Jane Ridgway.

Eagle Scout

Scout Richard Steen of Troop 10, sponsored by the Wilmette Optimist club, received the Eagle Scout rank recently before the large public gathering at the Wilmette Hobby Shop and Court of Honor. In appreciation to his mother he pinned on her a Mother Eagle Pin. His father was also present to pin the Eagle Badge on his son.

The Eagle rank is the highest rank in Scouting, hard to earn but highly praised by those who have it. Scout Steen is the most recent Eagle in Wilmette. He is past 15 years old and has been in Scouting since he was twelve, received his second class April, 1928, first class June, 1928, Star, August, 1928, Life, June, 1930, Eagle, March 28, 1931. Last summer at Camp Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan he was rated as an Honor Camper by his fellow Scouts and chosen as a member of the Honor Campers Brotherhood of the Order of the Arrow. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Steen of 1535 Spencer avenue, Wilmette.

Jacob Hoffmann Funeral Services Held April 15

Funeral services for Jacob Hoffmann, 1713 Forest avenue, one of the old settlers in the former Gross Point section, were held on Wednesday, April 15, at Scott's funeral home, 1118 Greenleaf avenue. Burial was at Memorial Park cemetery.

Mr. Hoffmann would have been 72 years old in August. He passed away on Monday, April 13. He was born in Gross Point and had spent his entire lifetime in that vicinity. For the last nineteen years he had lived with his brother, Joe Hoffmann, at 1713 Forest avenue.

Besides the brother here, he is survived by another brother, John Hoffmann of St. Charles, Mo., and a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Frank of Chicago.

AT GEORGIAN

The Georgian hotel, Evanston, is giving weekly bridge luncheons on Tuesdays at 1 o'clock.

Mrs. LeRoy M. Minor, 929 Sheridan road, returned to her home last Friday from California. She had been visiting Mrs. Harry E. Hughes at the latter's winter home in Van Nuys. Mrs. Hughes, who was formerly of Wilmette, is now residing at the Orrington hotel, Evanston.

Teacher to Present Students in Recital

The piano pupils of Dorothy L. Pound will meet Saturday, April 25, at 2:30 for their next class recital, which will be held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Amos, 831 Ashland avenue. Marjorie Amos, Nancy Berca, John and Marion Cox, Edith Stratford, Patricia Fisher, Mary May Crawford, Marian West, Jane Horstman, Jean Everson, David Gennert, Dick Hall, Jane Kruse, Katherine Lathfield, Gladys W. David and Elizabeth Allen, Helen MacFadden, Betty Lou Edwards, Lillian Larsen and Marion Knick will present the program.

Four of Miss Pound's pupils have appeared at the Kenilworth Saturday Afternoon Recitals with great success. Day's program played three numbers on the recital program, March 7; Jean Everson and Patricia Fisher appeared March 21, and Marion Knick and the present number (Concert Solo of March 21) well on the program April 7. Miss Pound had charge of the program on March 21, when a large crowd attended.

A few of Miss Pound's first pupils have been in the limelight. Jane Young, who was a student of Miss Pound for eleven years, has attained artistic results in the musical field, and on Saturday was married to William White of Evanston. Jane Ridgway, another pupil for a number of years, was also married last month. David Burnham, whose book, "This Our Exile," has created much discussion, received his musical education from Miss Pound, as did his brother, James.

Miss Pound has been particularly fortunate, she says, in the number of musical and interesting students who have come under her guidance, and she is interested in following the lives of all her pupils—past and present.

Of the present pupils, David Gennert is one of the most outstanding. He will be remembered for the very successful concert he gave at the Kenilworth club a year ago when he was just nine. At present he has a list of compositions to his credit.

Miss Pound finds some time for practice and for keeping up her repertoire. At the last meeting of the North Shore Musicians' club she played a group which consisted of Chopin's "G Minor Ballad," "Notturmo" by Respighi and "Ronde des Lutens" by Nerini, all of which were enthusiastically received.

Miss Pound, for two and one-half years a Wilmette resident, who has her studio at 521 Elveth street, has served on the board of directors of the Musicians' Club of Women for the past three years.

FIREMEN GET 3 CALLS

The Wilmette Fire department answered three calls during the week ending Wednesday, April 22, two for fires and one to assist a man locked out of his house. One of the fires was a prairie fire at 826 Chestnut avenue last Saturday. The other was in a shack at 416 E. Railroad avenue on Wednesday.

Miss Marian V. Thayer, 121 Robsart road, Kenilworth, and Miss Elizabeth Millar, 510 Washington avenue, Wilmette, will spend the week-end at Champaign with Mrs. Edward Potthoff, the former Miss Jean Drayer. Mrs. Potthoff was formerly a classmate of Miss Thayer and Miss Millar at the University of Illinois.

Miss Phyllis Fox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Porter G. Fox of Kenilworth, will return the first part of May from a month's sojourn in Los Angeles, as the guest of Mrs. Joseph Beeson and her daughter, Miss Jean Beeson. Miss Fox left Kenilworth about the first of April.

Tirrell J. Ferrenz has returned to his home at 511 Washington avenue from San Antonio, Texas, where he had attended an Architects' convention.

Welfare Ticket in Sweeping Victory at Polls Tuesday

Mr. Brandt, 2260, and Mr. James, 2257.

Myra J. Davis and Josephine L. Gates, candidates on the Independent slate for Library trustees were accorded a sizeable complimentary vote.

The $100,000 bond issue proposition to make improvements and extensions in the water system was approved by the voters, the totals being 2798 for the proposition and 2364 against.

Canvass Ballots April 29

Total figures in the complimentary vote given the two unopposed Library trustee candidates were unavailable at the time of going to press, due, obviously, to the intense interest in the vote for other municipal officers, which caused the gathering of returns to overlook for the present the Library trustee vote, a circumstance that is not to be construed as a discourtesy to the candidates.

Official canvass of the ballots will be conducted by the present Village board at an adjourned session Wednesday evening, April 29, and the installation of President-elect Dubbs and the new trustees will take place Tuesday evening, May 3, it was announced this week.

Complete tabulation by precincts of Tuesday's election will be found on Page 66 of this issue.

STYLE SHOW AT SHAWNEE

A dinner, style show, cabaret and a buffet supper is planned as an outstanding event at Shawnee Country club Saturday evening, April 25. Fashions for the beach and for sports for men and women, as well as dresses and suits for other hours of the day will be reviewed, and a surprise feature is announced as one of the dinner reservations are limited and those wishing to attend are advised to apply early. The buffet will be served at midnight.

Betty Waugh, daughter of the J. Frank Waugh, 812 Ashland avenue, is convalescing from mumps. She expects to return on Monday to her fourth grade studies at the Central school.

BRIGHTEN UP THE TRIM

Many homes in this community need freshening up but owners don't feel like paying for a complete repainting. For a few dollars, let us brighten up the trim.

It's surprising—the difference freshly painted trim makes. Dutch Boy white-lead paint, a few hours' work and, presto! a miracle is wrought...We don't advocate skimping on painting. We mention this re-trimming idea as an emergency measure.

Get an estimate, anyway. You may find prices lower than you think.
