

To Teach at Lake

Karl Gasslander, assistant director of the art department of Northwestern university, will direct classes in drawing and painting, design in industry, creative writing and dancing and dramatics in a school to be held this summer at Powers Lake, Wis., June 29 to Aug. 8.

Mr. Gasslander, a member of the Chicago Society of Artists, is exhibiting at their spring showing at the Midland club, Chicago. He is also a member of the Illinois Academy of Fine Arts and has a drawing and block print on exhibition at its current show at the Merchandise mart. He is a member of the University club of Evanston.

Wheaton College Honors Inez Larson of Glencoe

Miss Inez Larson of Glencoe, with seven of her senior classmates, distinguished herself by winning scholastic honors at Wheaton college, Wheaton, Ill., and was presented with a certificate of membership to the newly organized Scholastic Honor society. These eight students were elected to membership by reason of outstanding scholarship, Christian culture and achievement. Besides her scholastic attainments Miss Larson, who is a graduate of New Trier High school, has been a prominent figure in college activities. At present she is secretary of the Student council, Wheaton's student government organization. She is the daughter of Carl J. Larson, 885 Vernon avenue.

The Wheaton College Scholastic Honor society is seeking affiliation with the National Honor society, Phi Beta Kappa, and now the college society has the same standards as the national organization.

Evanston Will Continue Vacation Church Schools

Continuing the vacation church schools which have been increasingly successful in Evanston during recent years, the Ministerial Association of Evanston is sponsoring the 1931 schools during the four week period between June 22 and July 17.

Boys and girls of kindergarten through junior age (approximately 4 to 12 years) may attend these schools, which are in session from Monday to Friday, inclusive, from 9 to 11:30 o'clock each morning. There is no tuition fee, although each week the pupils are asked to bring a free-will offering to help defray expenses.

The courses include Bible stories, devotional music, supervised recreation, religious art, dramatization, and other subjects, and will be taught at Covenant and Wheaton Methodist Episcopal churches, St. John's Evangelical church, Northminster and the Second Presbyterian churches, and Oakton and Foster schools.

Jorjorian Provides Rug for Speaker's Platform

S. K. Jorjorian of Lord's store in Evanston provided the rug for the speaker's platform at New Trier High school Wednesday night of last week when President Robert Maynard Hutchins of the University of Chicago addressed the New Trier High school Parent-Teacher association. The Sound Distribution Systems company provided the public address system and microphone which made it possible for the audience to hear President Hutchins in all parts of the room.

TO CONDUCT NOVENA

The Rev. Thos. M. Schwertner, O. P., of New York, well known historian and Dominican preacher, former editor of the Rosary magazine, will conduct the solemn novena in honor of St. Jude to be held at the Shrine of St. Jude Thaddeus, Ashland avenue and 19th street, Chicago. This event begins Sunday, May 24.
