

North Shore Men Travel in Fast Company

Two Evanston business men teamed with two of the outstanding amateur tournament golfers of the district in this foursome which tied for low gross 36 holes in the annual Kildeer Country Club Karnival June 10. From left to right—Norman F. Lighthart, vice president of Smart & Golee, Inc.; Gus Novotny of Edgewood Valley, winner of the Pan-American tournament two years ago and once runner-up in the Western Amateur; Jack Westland of Sunset Ridge, twice winner of the Chicago District Amateur title; and L. Q. Needler of L. Q. Needler & Company. Their total for the 36 holes was 656 which tied the foursome of Johnny Lehman, Russell Martin, A. O. Brett and Coleman Clark. Over 250 players, including the leading amateurs in the district, enjoyed a wonderful day of golf. Kenneth L. "Tug" Wilson of Northwestern university, president of the club, presented the prizes.
