Millionaire

George Arliss plays the delightful role of a man who deserts his riches for some real fun in "The Millionaire," to be shown at the Teatro del Lago on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, June 30 and July 1 and 2.

George Arliss Is One of Stars at Teatro del Lago

"The Millionaire" might well be the theme title for the entertainment to be offered at the beautiful Teatro del Lago on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, June 30 and July 1 and 2.

For there certainly will be a wealth of entertainment lavished on the hundreds of patrons who enjoy themselves in this amusement center.

The twin bill on these nights will feature two of the best of the current productions, namely, "The Millionaire" with George Arliss, and "God's Gift to Women," the "gift" being none other than Frank Fay.

In "The Millionaire" George Arliss leads the delightful double life of a rich man who forgets his wealth to have some real fun. This clever comedy by Earl Derr Biggers is made existingly real by Booth Tarkington's dialog. The play is simply brought to a sparkle by the performance of George Arliss, first gentleman of the screen.

Here's a Mirthfest

"God's Gift to Women," the other feature, offers a mirthfest with Frank Fay, Laura La Plante, Charles Winninger, Joan Blondell, Yola D'Avril and Louise Brooks.

The attractions at the Teatro del Lago tonight (Thursday, June 25) are two and mighty. Warner Baxter and Joan Bennett star in the fascinating film, "Doctors' Wives," and Loretta Young is a girl who loses herself in love in "Too Young to Marry."

On Friday and Saturday, June 26 and 27, a well balanced double feature program offers "Gun Smoke," great action picture with Richard Arlen and Mary Brian, and "The Sin Ship," presenting the late Louis Wolheim in his last performance.

Wolheim in Thriller

Thrilling adventure, chilling intrigue, colorful sea-going action, with Louis Wolheim and Mary Astor involved in a dramatic entanglement. That, in essence, describes "The Sin Ship" that will thrill large crowds at the Teatro del Lago.

Gary Cooper is the star of "City Streets," to be shown as part of a twin feature bill at the Teatro del Lago on Sunday and Monday, June 28 and 29. The other picture has a Chicago locale and is known as "3 Girls Lost."

Admirers of Gary Cooper's he-man portrayals will find added interest in his latest starring picture, "City Streets." The virile westerner appears, for the first time in his three years of starring fame, dressed throughout the picture in civilian clothes. Sylvia Sidney, Wynne Gibson and Paul Lucas are in the cast.

The picture, "3 Girls Lost," cannot fail to be interesting to persons living near Chicago. Loretta Young, John Wayne and Lew Cody are among the stars.

Winnetkans Will Be in Community House Film

Winnetka children who participated in the Mother's Day activities at Ravinia park this last May will be delighted to know that motion pictures of the event will be shown at Community House this Friday and Saturday, June 26 and 27, along with the regular motion picture performances. The title of this picture is "A Mother's Day Tribute"—a review of Boy and Girl Scout organizations of the North Shore area. The Camp Fire Girls, Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts who paid their respects on that day will again march for you this week-end!
