

$3,000 RING found in bath tub

THIS departing guest was frantic: A $3,000 diamond ring lost—and he couldn't wait to look for it. With agony in his voice, he called the United Manager. Three hours go by. The guest has gone, but the manager is still on the job.

A wild idea—the Manager pokes a flash-light down the bath tub drain—there's a faint sparkle—plumbers arrive, the drain gives up a $3,000 ring.

Another true story proving that United Managers do the impossible in finding lost articles. This extra service costs the hotel money? Yes, but what of it. Extra service is taken for granted at United Hotels, just like larger rooms per dollar—and handy garage accommodations.

News of Interest to Golfers

By Jack Hoag

The Chicago Women's Golf association's Intra-City team matches at the North Shore Golf club were the big feature of the past week in the world of sport and our north shore women golfers demonstrated their supremacy in this event in a marked manner. The chief feature of the day's play was a remarkable card of 87 by Mrs. Charles Dennehy, of Onwentsia. Mrs. Dennehy before her marriage was Miss Virginia Wilson and she is a former Women's National champion, but she has not played competitive golf for a couple of years and, for her to lead a field composed of the classiest women players in the Chicago district, was a remarkable performance.

This Intra-City match is between teams of six players representing the north, south, and west side and, as the stars of each locality are picked to represent their district, it brought together the eighteen finest women golfers within a hundred-mile radius of Chicago. To say that all the contestants played well is to state an absolute fact but in every match there must be a winner and a loser and when the smoke of the battle had cleared away the North Shore team was out in front by a big margin.

Course Slow

The heavy rain of the previous evening had slowed up the course and this, coupled with a strong wind, was responsible for the high scores. In spite of the adverse conditions little Mrs. Dennehy swung and pitched and putted her way to victory when her sturdier opponents found the going too rough. Perfect timing was the secret of her success and it was marvelous to watch her hit through the ball and observe how little her long game was affected by the elements. Mrs. Dennehy was paired against Mrs. Melvin Jones of Lincolnshire and Mrs. L. W. Mida of Butterfield, and the clever Onwentsia player won all six points.

Mrs. Austin Pardue of Indian Hill, won 3½ points from Miss June Beebe of Olympia Fields and Mrs. A. E. Sheill of Glen Oak. Miss Jane Weiller of Vernon took 5 points from Mrs. E. T. Nicholas of Lincolnshire and Mrs. Pearl Indig of Mohawk. Miss Helen MacMorran of Indian Hill won 4 points from Mrs. A. R. Copeland of Calumet and Mrs. O. C. Bell of Edgewood Valley. Miss Jean Armstrong of Indian Hill won all 6 points from Mrs. Harry E. Spear of La Grange and Miss Dorothy Gustafson of South Bend.

Winnetka Girls Are Stars

Three of the five players who represented the North Side team are members of Indian Hill and these players annexed 13½ of the 24½ points scored by their team. That this team won is surprising when one considers that they played five players against six. One of the North Side teams arrived ten minutes too late and her matches were, of necessity, defaulted to her opponents. Miss Jane Weiller of Vernon, played No. 3, on the North Side team and the golf she shot proves that her win of the Chicago Women's championship at Calumet was no fluke. Miss Weiller's form is good and the writer considers her one of the coming stars of the country.

A feature of the Intra-City matches was the appearance of little Miss Dorothy Gustafson of the Coquillard Country club of South Bend, Ind. Miss Gustafson was playing in her first big tournament but she showed fine mental control and a real golf game. Her medal card was a 95 and she won points for the South Side. In addition to Mrs. Dennehy's 87, there were 88's by Mrs. Austin Pardue, and Miss Jean Armstrong of Winnetka, and by Miss June Beebe of Olympia Fields. Miss Helen MacMorran of Winnetka scored a 90 and there were many other fine cards. In this event the North Side team won 24½ points. The South Side team 19½ points and the West Side team 9½ points. These totals, added to those of the previous tournament, give the North Side 44½ points. The South Side 34 points and the West Side 29½ points. There is one more match to be played but the North Side is so far out in front that there is little question of their ultimate win of the title.

Miss Armstrong Sets Record

Miss Jean Armstrong, of Winnetka, has been shooting wonderful golf during the entire year and a feature of the week's play was her record breaking card of 76 in the North Shore team matches at the Wilmette Golf club. Miss Armstrong's card was three strokes below women's par and there are few men in the city who would gamble on their ability to equal her performance. Playing in the same event Mrs. Carroll C. Kendrick of Winnetka scored a clever 81 and the Indian Hill team made practically a clean sweep of their matches. Miss Armstrong's record breaking card, together with the standing of the North Shore teams follows:

Miss Armstrong—out	4 5 4 4 3 5 3 5 4—37
Women's par—out	5 4 4 5 4 5 3 5—40

COUCH SHOTS PAR GOLF

Ira L. Couch of Glen View has a golf game. In fact, the writer considers him one of the finest young golfers in the west. Ira finished in a tie for second place in the qualifying round of the National Amateur championship at Onwentsia and he followed this by winning the Knollwood Invitation tournament with two cards totaling 146 for the thirty-six holes. Ira shot a 72 in the morning and his 33 on the last nine holes was the fastest golf of the year. He followed this with a fine 74 in the afternoon and he is hitting his shots in a manner that should carry him far in the match play rounds at Beverly. Bobby Jones says, "That par golf is good enough to win from anybody," and Bobby is right. Good golf is always "easy golf" and the best way to appreciate Couch's play is to study his cards which follow:

Couch—
A. M.—out	5 4 4 3 4 5 5 5 4—39
P. M.—out	4 6 3 4 4 5 3 5 5—39

MRS. RAYMOND WINS AT EVANSTON

Mrs. Howard D. Raymond won the woman's championship of the Evanston Golf club by defeating Mrs. J. W. Taylor 4 up and 3 to play in a well played match. Mrs. Raymond won the first three holes and from here to the finish of the match she never gave the long driving Evanston star a chance. Both players are capable of a better medal score but from a match play viewpoint the final was worth going a long ways to see. The Evanston club has a fine bunch of women golfers and the results of the club championship in all flight follows:

Mrs. H. D. Raymond won the title. Mrs. R. L. Wetzel, last year's champion, won the Championship Consolation.

Mrs. J. E. Beebe defeated Miss Dorothy Morton 1 up for the class B. title.

Mrs. James Krathefer won the Class B Consolation.

Miss Barbara Black is the Class C champion. She defeated Mrs. A. E. Buesch 2 and 1 for the title.

Mrs. T. Fertig won the Class C Consolation.

Mrs. George Baker took home the non-qualifiers prize.

WESTMORELAND TAM POSTPONED

Due to pressing business interests which prevented many guests from competing in the annual Westmoreland "Tam," the officers of the club have decided to postpone the tournament until next year.

LITTLE SETS NEW RECORD

Playing over the new Illuminated course at the Wilmette Golf club, R. B. Little shot a record breaking 26 for nine holes. His card which follows shows only one 4 and his round was a remarkable exhibition of iron club play coupled with good putting.

Little—out	3 3 3 4 3 3 2 2 3—26
Par—out	3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3—27

REAL GOLF FANS

It took more than a little heat to keep Frank Hebard, Joe Prayer, Emanuel Larson and Walt Theibault from trying out the North Shore course. Theibault is a fine golfer but ill health has interfered with his game this year and Walt is just getting back his old form. Andy Collins once said, "Walt does everything disgustingly well," and Andy told the truth, for Walt is a natural athlete with a fine eye and a steady nerve. He was formerly a billiard star and, if his health were better, he'd be one of the finest golfers in the district.

WALTON SHOTS A 73

Playing in the week-end tournament at Sunset Ridge Howard Walton of Winnetka shot a fine card which totaled 73. This was good enough to win for him. P. B. Umberger, of the same town, had a 77 and William Hunter finished with a 79.

MACNAB LIKES TECHNY

M. Macnab, of Kamlosps, British Columbia, scored a fine 78 on his first round of Techny Fields and said he was surprised at the wonderful condition of our pay-as-you-play courses.

NEW GLEN VIEW GREENS

Glen View has two new greens that are giving the members some difficult putting problems to solve. The first green burned out and has been rebuilt. The twelfth was damaged by water and it has been raised and rebuilt so that it is now above high-water mark and the river can get gay without causing any anxiety to the greens committee.

MC MAHONS IN CALIFORNIA

Mrs. Thomas McMahon and family of Glencoe are in California for the summer and Tommy is dividing his time between Skokie and the Pacific Coast clubs.

MIXED FOURSOME PLAY

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Henkins of Glencoe won the mixed foursome prize at Skokie with a fine net card of 162. (Continued on page 27)
