Wilmette Theater to Unveil Secret in Mighty Drama

What is the lawyer's secret?

This will be revealed in a drama, intensely real, human and emotionally exciting, to be offered at the Wilmette theater on Wednesday and Thursday, August 19 and 20.

Clive Brook's suave forcefulness, Richard Arlen's appealing youth, Fay Wray's loveliness, Jean Arthur's earnestness and Charles Rogers' newly discovered dramatic ability give to "The Lawyer's Secret" all the talent needed to translate this gripping drama into living reality.

"The Lawyer's Secret" is an extraordinary drama, really three stories with one sweeping, motivating force.

Clive Brook

With whom is Clive Brook, the lawyer, in love? Why are Brook's lips sealed with regard to a murder case in which his fiancée's brother is involved? How are affairs straightened out after the wrong man has been convicted of the murder?

"The Lawyer's Secret," with one of the greatest casts ever assembled for a single play, will answer these queries on Wednesday and Thursday, August 19 and 20.

"Svengali," with John Barrymore as the rogue with the bewitching eyes, will fascinate at the Wilmette theater Thursday (today) and Friday, August 13 and 14. Marian Marsh will be the spellbound Trilby who forsakes her friends to follow the enchanter.

Here's Robert Montgomery

On Saturday, August 15, the popular Robert Montgomery will appear at the Wilmette theater in a return engagement of "Shipmates." Plenty of pep and action, plus the United States navy make this film a veritable gale of laughter from beginning to end. At the Saturday matinee only, the second chapter of the serial, "The Vanishing Legion," will be shown. Harry Carey and Edwina Booth of "Trader Horn" fame are stars.

"Up Pops the Devil" is the sprightly drama to be enjoyed at the Wilmette theater on Sunday, August 16. 'Tis about Steve, a young man, who, tied to an advertising desk, thinks he could write the Great American Novel if he had time. So Steve stays home and his wife secures a job in the chorus. Norman Foster is fine in the role of Steve, and Carole Lombard wins sympathy as the wife.

Laughter Will Reign

William Haines will be seen in what is believed to be his most sophisticated role to date in "Just A Gigolo," Wilmette attraction Monday and Tuesday, August 17 and 18. As a young English lord, Haines is funny as well as romantic.

"Funnier than ever before!" the audiences will chuckle while getting ready to break forth into good hearty guffaws.

Irene Purcell, C. Aubrey Smith and Lilian Bond are other talented stars.

COMING ATTRACTIONS

Pictures on the way to the Wilmette theater are "Always Goodbye" with Elissa Landi, to be shown Friday, August 21; "Dude Ranch" with Jack Oakie on Saturday, August 22; "I Take This Woman" on Sunday and Monday, August 23 and 24; "The Man in Possession" on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, August 25, 26 and 27.

Gigolo Gesture

McLaglen Overtakes His Woman at Last

Victor McLaglen, the big he-man of motion pictures, has chased countless women through miles of film, but until he portrayed the role of John Rawson, the western mine owner of great wealth in "Annabelle's Affairs," the Fox comedy, showing at the Teatro del Lago on Sunday and Monday, August 16 and 17, he never got his woman.

McLaglen is co-featured with Jeanette MacDonald, beautiful and accomplished screen actress, in this rollicking comedy, adapted from Clare Kummer's stage play.

"Donovan's Kid" Receives Praise

Richard Dix and Jackie (Skippy) Cooper will be stars of "Young Donovan's Kid" at the Teatro del Lago on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, August 20, 21 and 22.

Here's what Photoplay magazine says of the film: "It's from the Rex Beach story, 'Big Brother,' once made as a silent picture.

"However, that won't interest you as much as the fact that seven-year-old Jackie Cooper, the screen's new child wonder, steals this picture right from the star's nose. Dix gives a fine performance, however.

"Jackie is magnificent as the gangster's kid. He'll make you cry again—and laugh, too.

"There is plenty of excitement in this, and plenty of suspense.

"Altogether, it's a swell show. Don't miss it."

Obtains Hours of Sleep While He Stars in Play

The gorgeous young lady, whose daily task is nothing harder than sleeping (hypnotic or otherwise) for many hours in a store window, has not so much as a wink on Paul Lukas, movie actor.

Lukas recently spent an entire day in bed while his salary and the sound cameras went on just the same. The slumbering is part of a scene in "The Vice Squad," his new film which is showing at the Teatro del Lago on Tuesday and Wednesday, August 18 and 19. The story called for him to lie in a coma while Kay Francis and Helen Johnson nursed him back to health.

Lukas did the assignment so well that he actually gained a few hours of interrupted repose.

But he gave no occasion to change the name from talkies to snore-ies.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Carter of 1227 Greenwood avenue and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Carter, of Aberdeen, S. D., spent July on a ranch in Wyoming and in Yellowstone park.

Mrs. Alex Joslin of 240 Essex road, Kenilworth, is enjoying a visit with her sister, Miss Natalia Stern, who has come on from Cornwall-on-the-Hudson, N. Y.
