Teatro del Lago Has Many Stars in Feature Plays

"Rich Man's Folly" and "Fanny Foley Herself" will be the attractions for the Teatro del Lago program on Friday and Saturday, January 15 and 16. The two feature films will provide entertainment that pleases with the varied appeal of its ingredients—dramatic power, comedy and human qualities.

A cast of great popularity and strength builds interest in "Rich Man's Folly." George Bancroft, the star, has one of the strongest character roles he has ever undertaken. He acts the part of a big shipbuilder, a man of large affairs in the business world, a dominating personality. Highest dramatic technic and vigor help Bancroft score a mighty triumph in the role of a domineering, hard-fisted, ambition-mad man who has stifled all love and friendly feeling.

The late Robert Ames, Frances Dee, Juliette Compton, Gilbert Emery and David Durand are members of the supporting cast.

Edna May Oliver Is Star

Comedy that rises from the highest sources and emotions that reach the heart-strings sound the note of the comedy-drama, "Fanny Foley Herself," Starring Edna May Oliver. The picture, all in technicolor, signalizes her stardom debut.

On Sunday and Monday, January 17 and 18, the Teatro del Lago presents "His Woman" and "The Age for Love." A new starring team—Claudette Colbert and Gary Cooper—is introduced in the drama, "His Woman," adapted from Dale Collins' novel, "The Sentimentalist." Dramatic adventures hold interest all the way.

Billie Dove makes a triumphant return to the screen in "The Age for Love." Howard Hughes, youthful millionaire who produced the picture, spared no expense in securing an excellent supporting cast which includes Charles Starrett, Lois Wilson, Edward Everett Horton, Mary Duncan, Adrian Morris and Betty Ross Clarke. Frank Lloyd directs.

These Pictures Have Power

"The Yellow Ticket" and "Are These Our Children?" will be the Teatro del Lago films on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, January 19, 20, and 21.

Romance, intrigue, charm and pathos are elements that make "The Yellow Ticket" a picture of unusual entertaining quality. Elissa Landi, novelist and emotional actress, who is the beautiful daughter of an Austrian countess, has the leading feminine role, with Lionel Barrymore and Laurence Olivier, handsome newcomer from the London stage, in the principal male parts.

Youths between sixteen and twenty years of age comprise almost the entire cast of principals in the powerful drama, "Are These Our Children?" The notable exceptions are Beryl Mercer and William Orlamond. The star youngsters include Rochelle Hudson and Eric Linden.

On Thursday of this week, the Teatro del Lago offers "The Mad Genius," with John Barrymore, and "Reckless Living," featuring Ricardo Cortez and Mae Clarke.

RECKLESS ADVENTURER

Recklessly adventurous rather than romantic, Ronald Colman comes to the Wilmette theater Tuesday and Wednesday, January 19 and 20, in "The Unholy Garden," as Samuel Goldwyn's first screen presentation of the year.
