The morning worship of the church and school is held at 11 o'clock under the leadership of the pastor, whose sermons are a constant challenge, inspiration and help to us in these trying times. We heartily welcome into our fellowship those who have not yet affiliated themselves with some church in the village. The church has a message of power and uplift for everyone today.

Elsewhere in this issue of Wilmette Life appears a news item of the Union Young People's program planned for Sunday evening, January 31, in this church at 6 o'clock, to hear John Burdette, negro baritone, who will be our guest and the soloist for the evening's service in song.
