

Wilmette Contralto to Sing for Music Club

Miss Pearl Hoose, contralto, of Wilmette, will appear on the Young Artist's program of the Chicago Woman's Musical club, Thursday, February 4, in the Fine Arts building, Chicago. She will sing, "Dawn," Curran; "Songs My Mother Taught Me," Dvorak; "Meine Liebe Ist Gruen," Brahms. She also sang with the Scott Vocal Ensemble, at the Naval Veteran's hospital in Lake Forest on January 27 and participated, with Miss Beatrice Anderson, soprano, in two duets, "The Gypsies," Brahms, and "To Music," Horrocks, and will appear with the ensemble in chorus and solo groups on programs to be given during February and March at the South Side Chapter of Eastern Star, Chicago Commons, The Episcopal Home for the Aged and South Chicago Neighborhood House.

Miss Hoose is a pupil of Madame Gilderoy Scott, head of the voice department of the Knupfer studios in Wilmette and Chicago.

Pupils at Avoca Enjoy Extra Day of Vacation

Pupils of the Avoca school on Ashland avenue in the northwest section of Wilmette enjoyed an extra day of vacation last week-end. Monday was visiting day for their teachers, Mrs. Edith Cotnam and Mrs. Glen Clinebell, so school was dismissed. The teachers visited other schools in the county.

ENTERTAINING AT VISTA

Among those who will entertain guests at the large dinner bridge party to be given Saturday by Club Vista del Lago for members will be Mr. and Mrs. W. Riley Harvey of Glencoe, Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Benzing of Kenilworth, Mr. and Mrs. Val A. Smith of Wilmette, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Shaffer of Highland Park, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith of Evanston, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Sanderson of Evanston will entertain a party of twelve guests that evening.

LUNCHEON HOSTESS

Mrs. Fred L. Workman and Mrs. Walter Botthof of Kenilworth will be the hostesses at the special bridge luncheon to be held by Club Vista del Lago on Monday, February 1. This is to be the largest one of the month with special bridge prizes for Mrs. John McKee (Helen Suits) has been visiting her mother, Mrs. W. E. Suits of 211 Warwick road, Kenilworth. Mrs. Suits met with an accident while at Mrs. McKee's home in Sault Sainte Marie, so Mrs. McKee accompanied her to Kenilworth and now has returned home. Mrs. Suits expects to be on crutches in a very short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Furst are expected to return to their home at 502 Washington avenue the latter part of this week from a three weeks' stay in New Ulm, Minn., the latter's former home. Mr. Furst who is president of the Hauenstein company, and his wife combined a business trip with a visit with relatives and friends.

William Fox, 1317 Elmwood avenue, will attend the marriage of his sister, Miss Mary Elizabeth Fox, and Dr. J. Herman Haines, which will take place Friday evening, January 29, in Lynn, Mass.

Miss Ruth Cohen, 1231 Forest avenue, was home last week-end from Rockford college. Her birthday, which was last Sunday, was celebrated at a family dinner party on Saturday.

Wilmette Post No. 46 American Legion

Vice-commander Leach reports paid memberships for 1932 at 134.

Service officer W. F. Bollinger says he secured employment for unemployed to the amount of 212 hours of work at 50 cents per hour.

Comrade E. H. Vogt of this post is convalescing in Ward 22N at Naval hospital, Great Lakes, where he will be glad to see his friends.

Members are urged to get their discharge papers to S. M. Peterson to have them photostated as a protection against loss. If this had been done before some recent deaths a great deal of inconvenience in the proving of claims would have been averted.

There is now a possibility that Wilmette post will develop a firing squad, the rifles having been purchased in 1928.

The Drum and Bugle corps held its first spring practice in Howard school Tuesday, January 19, with twenty-five men. This practice will be weekly on Tuesdays from now until May 30, except on post meeting nights.

The February meeting of the post will be held Tuesday, February 9, at St. Augustine's club house.

Members of Wilmette Post Drum and Bugle corps are selling tickets for Winnetka post's annual show, "The Shelf," to be given at New Trier High school February 5 and 6. Winnetka's productions are always well worth while. Tickets can be had at Rennekar Drug company, the Oil Well, Winberg Pharmacy, or Ridge Avenue Pharmacy.

Much favorable comment on the fine Post year-book was received from national, state, and divisional headquarters. J. B. Stanton was in charge of this work, which was printed by Lloyd Hollister Inc.

Demand continues for old clothing. Hunt some up and call W. F. Bollinger or G. E. Leal.

Comrade Ed Drewes served a fine lunch at the January meeting, the doughnuts being excellent.

Mrs. N. C. Thayer, formerly of Wilmette, has returned to her apartment in the Orrington hotel after a visit with her mother in Sioux Rapids, Iowa, while Mr. Thayer was on an extended business trip in the east.

James W. Peaslee, 926 Lake avenue, has been in New York City this week attending the annual boat show. Mr. Peaslee is editor of "Boating Business."

Mrs. Frank P. Kuttan, 1101 Chestnut avenue, will entertain at a few tables of bridge at the special bridge luncheon to be held by Club Vista del Lago next Monday.

Mrs. Will C. Braun of 807 Central avenue is entertaining the members of her dinner and bridge club at their home Saturday evening.

The Sewing club met with Mrs. Walter Marx, 522 Essex road, Kenilworth on Monday, January 25.

Edward A. Cassin Dies Jan. 20 in Tucson, Ariz.

Funeral services were held Monday morning at St. Francis Xavier church in Wilmette for Edward A. Cassin, 326 Oxford road, Kenilworth, who died Wednesday, January 20, at Tucson, Ariz., where he had gone for his health. The services were conducted by the Rev. James E. Shevlin, assistant pastor of the church. Burial took place at All Saints cemetery, Des Plaines.

Mr. Cassin was 51 years old. He had been a resident of Kenilworth for the past two years.

Surviving him are his widow, Mrs. Martha Cassin, two daughters, Mrs. Lorraine Mazurek and Miss Nona Cassin, and two sons, Jahn and Edward Cassin.

Mallinckrodt News

At the meeting of the Mothers' club last Wednesday, it was decided that Friday, January 29, Mallinckrodt mothers and friends are invited to spend the afternoon in the school auditorium where a card party will be given. Besides the promise to all participants that the afternoon will be most enjoyably spent, there is the possibility of winning one of the pretty little prizes that will grace the various tables that afternoon. The party will begin at 2 o'clock.

The last week in January brings to a close the first semester of school activities at The Mallinckrodt. The last three remaining days are scheduled as formal examination days. The second semester will commence Monday, February 1.

CHAUFFEUR INJURED

Frank Bethel, colored chauffeur for Edward D. Lilienfield, 816 Michigan avenue, Wilmette, suffered a deep cut on his right cheek and another on his forehead, when the car he was driving collided with another machine driven by A. Powers, 325 N. Austin boulevard, Chicago, last Wednesday afternoon at Gregory avenue and Fifth street. Bethel was taken to the Evanston hospital. The Lilienfield car turned over and crashed into a lamp post and Bethel was cut by the broken glass.

OPENS LAW OFFICE

Albert W. Froehde, 1608 Wilmette avenue, a Wilmette Village trustee, has announced the opening of an office for the general practice of law at 100 North LaSalle street, Chicago. Mr. Froehde was formerly trust officer for the Cosmopolitan State bank and vice-president of the Great Lakes Finance corporation.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert B. Taylor, 631 Abbottsford road, Kenilworth, entertained a few friends at tea last Sunday evening in honor of Mrs. Paul Bradley, before she leaves for her trip abroad.

Mrs. Louis D. Jones, 325 Richmond road, Kenilworth, accompanied by her mother, whose home is in Racine, Wis., left last Saturday for Miami Beach, and will meet there her brother, Russell Blish.

Mrs. Sidney Y. Ball, 936 Hill road, Winnetka entertained her luncheon and bridge club on Tuesday, January 26.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Herrick, 1032 Isabella street, Wilmette, have returned from a weekend visit in Lansing.

Sears School Pupils Resume Art Journeys

Sixth, seventh and eighth grade pupils at the Joseph Sears school in Kenilworth have started their second series of trips to the Chicago Art institute. Each of the three grades made one trip last fall. The sixth grade made its second and final trip of the year Wednesday of last week. The seventh grade was scheduled to go Wednesday of this week, and the eighth grade will visit the institute Tuesday, February 2.

Two members of the Joseph Sears faculty, Miss M. Louise Robinson, art teacher, and Miss Edith M. Stryker, social science teacher, accompany the pupils on these trips. A study of art, from the ancient and classic to the modern, is made.

The schedule of study for the three grades is arranged as follows:

Sixth grade—(Ancient and classic art). First trip, Egyptian, Assyrian and Babylonian, and Greek and Roman art; second trip (medieval period), the Gothic room and the primitive painters. Seventh grade—(The Renaissance). First trip, the seventeenth century Dutch and Flemish masters, the High Renaissance in Italy, the Italian Renaissance decorative arts; second trip, English eighteenth century painting, early American painting, Tudor room and colonial furniture.

Eighth grade—(Modern art). First trip, the development of modern art; second trip, modern American art.

Roycemore Has Mid-Year Prom Friday, Jan. 29

This week Friday evening the Roycemore school is having its regular mid-year "Prom" in the school gym. This prom, an annual affair just after the close of the mid-year examinations, is one of the important social events of the school. It is given by the Student board which is made up of the officers of the four upper-school classes and the regular student government officers. Miss Gertrude Matthews of Kenilworth is president of the Student Government this year. Miss Jane MacIntosh also of Kenilworth is president of the junior class, and represents her class on the student board.

THREE FIRE RUNS

Three fire runs were made by the Wilmette Fire department in the week ending Tuesday, January 26, one to extinguish a prairie fire on Prairie avenue in the 700 block, another to 2015 Thornwood avenue where a fire occurred in the Edward J. Devlin residence basement, and a third to 610 Washington avenue where a small fire started when a match lighted in the bathroom ignited a celluloid fixture. Slight damage resulted in the bathroom blaze.

Mr. and Mrs. Whittier Baer, 2115 Beachwood avenue are expecting Mr. Baer's mother, Mrs. W. F. Baer, to visit them this week. She is returning from a visit with her son in Idaho and is on her way to her home in New York.

Mrs. Frederic d'Aix of 317 Melrose avenue, Kenilworth and her companion, Miss Michaels, left last week for Phoenix, Ariz., Palm Springs, and other points in California.

Dr. and Mrs. E. F. Snyder, 1340 Chestnut avenue, will leave for Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. on Saturday. Dr. and Mrs. Harry S. Gradle of Highland Park will join them. They will be gone a month.

Miss Blanche Braidon who has been the guest of Mrs. J. V. Rathbone of 523 Abbottsford road, Kenilworth, has returned to her home in Parkersburg, W. Va.