

Many Will Enjoy Pictured Travels of Burton Holmes

Burton Holmes, virtuoso of the instructional travelogues, will appear at Orchestra hall, Chicago, Wednesday evening, February 10, when he is to begin a new cycle of his pictured stories of travel to extend over five Wednesday and Friday evenings and five Saturday afternoons.

The annual appearances of Burton Holmes has long been an event in the amusement season of our larger cities. People seem to get a great deal of cultural enjoyment from these vividly pictured travel tales and one is no longer called upon to justify one's attendance with that old excuse for going to the circus,—"I'm doing it for the youngsters."

This time Mr. Holmes comes to tell, among other interesting things, of the climatic and scenic fascinations of Hollywood. The world knows Hollywood largely by name, and by its not too enviable reputation. Pictures made in Hollywood have delighted—or distressed, the peoples of all lands, but the real Hollywood has never yet been truthfully presented on the screen.

Other topics in the Holmes' course, all based on the lecture-traveler's observations and impressions during his recent extensive travels in Europe, are as follows: "Beauty Trails in Switzerland," "Berlin to Sweden, Denmark and Norway," "All Over Italy, from the Alps to the ends of Sicily" and "Doing Paris and the Colonial Exposition."

BAHA'I LECTURE

The regular Sunday lecture in the Baha'i temple, Linden avenue, near Sheridan road, Wilmette, will take place Sunday, February 7, at 3:30 o'clock. The speaker will be Mrs. Ruth Moffett, who will speak on "The Healing of Nations."

Free Travel Lecture at Georgian Feb. 11

Announcement is made of a free travel lecture entitled "The Viking Empire and Russia," illustrated with colored stereopticon pictures of Iceland, North Cape, Scandinavia, Finland and Russia, to be held in the French room of the Georgian hotel, Evanston, Thursday evening, February 11 at 8:15, under the auspices of the North Shore Travel Service.

The speaker will be Howard Brenton MacDonald, F. R. G. S., characterized as the "prince of travel entertainers," it is said, knows the world as do few other men on the lecture platform today. He has been twice around the globe and traveled from the town farthest south past the town farthest north to within 571 miles of the North Pole. He has visited Scandinavia four times and crossed the United States nine times. Europe, the Mediterranean, and the islands of the West Indies he knows well. On his first world tour he visited Japan, China, Java, the Philippines, and romantic India only to return to all of these places in addition to Australia, New Zealand, Tasmania, and New Guinea on his second circumnavigation. Also he has been completely around South America and through Alaska and the Hawaiian islands. Recently he returned to Iceland for the third time. With the exception of South Africa (which he plans to visit soon) there are literally few places on the face of the earth where he has not been, for in all he has visited exactly sixty-six different countries and territories and covered a total distance of a quarter of a million miles.
