A PLEA FOR HELP

Numerous friends, relatives, and students of near-by private schools have been asking us, "What's happened to the New Trier News? We enjoyed reading it so much last year." Well, what did happen to it? The same thing that would happen to any undertaking that was not backed by the spirit and enthusiasm of those belonging to it.

Oh yes! The great majority of you read The News Notes. We have plenty of readers (and of course, "the more the merrier"), but what we need now is a group of enterprising "star" reporter and columnists. There are plenty of you prospective journalists in the school, we know, who would be only too glad to have this opportunity of practicing your future vocation or hobby if the realization of its presence were only brought to your attention.

Sometime in the near future we hope to start a paper of our own, independent of any other publication, but before its success can be insured, we need to make a go of this, our present job. Now it's up to you students to stand by your school in its hour of need and prove to the public, who have shown so much "school spirit" by making it possible for us to continue with our classes and extra curricular activities, that the students of New Trier are not unworthy of their interest.

Brothers of the Pan

(No relation to Sisters of the Skillet)

We, the authors of this column, in answering the questions, which we hope you will send in, do not claim to possess any super-natural powers, but base our answers on the results of great and extensive research in the fields of music, literature, love, philosophy, art, etc.

We will answer questions pertaining to love, business, or any of your difficult problems. These questions must not involve anybody's name, but fictitious titles may be used.

We will give you an example of what we mean:

Dear Brothers of the Pan:

How can I correct a very bad slice in my golf game? —G. V.

Dear G. V.

After much deliberation and thinking we decided that the best thing for you to do is to sell your golf set and take up tennis. You know many golf clubs have been broken by people after they have sliced into a river or woods. If you did this you would be minus a golf set and some good money. So why not sell them and make some money?

Dear Brothers of the Pan:

My girl insists on talking every-time we go out. What should I do? —The Anxious One.

Dear Anxious One:

Go to a school for the deaf and dumb and pick yourself a girl. This may sound funny, but it is the wisest thing to do.

—Brothers of the Pan.

Here and There

"I am undone! Babe shrilly cried,
Ned knelt contritely by her side,
And humbly in a bownot tied,
Her shoestring."

Said Quinlan to Stilling at the formal:
"Stick out your ears, you're sliding though your collar."

When to Latin class I go,
A little prayer I utter low:
I say in accents soft but deep,
Now I lay me down to sleep.

Franny: "I smell paint."
Renny: "Sure. That's because you're nose is on your face."

I stood on the bridge at midnight,
Ah, with the tollsman's daughter;
The tollman took the bridge away,
And we both fell in the water.

Harry Kinne (to contributor to the Echoes): "This isn't poetry; it's merely an escape of gas."
Balloon Gordon: "Oh I see. Something wrong with the meter."

In the Classroom

Hilde: What plant flourishes in Cold?
G. Schilbach: "Ice plant."

Mr. Shearer: "What Greek Slogan is used extensively in this School?"
Ed Frankel: "They shall not pass."

Bayne O'Brien: "Well, I sure knocked them cold in my exams."
Tom White: "Yeah, whatja get."
O'B: "Zero."—By special permission of the copy-write owners.

Mr. "Bill" Reiley: "Who buys the grub for the White House?"
Jack Kelley: "Why Mrs. White, of course."

Chuck Leonard: "I got zero in an Alg. test."
Bill Holmes: "That's nothing."

Mr. Vankirk: "What is the scientific name for snoring?"
"Duez" Bartlett: "Sheet music."

Miss Ulrich: "What caused the railroad strikes of 1877?"
Pat Lawrence: "Why, the men refused to work."

PLEASED WITH PROGRESS

Mr. Gaffney has been visiting classes of all the members of the mathematics department teaching staff, and reports that he is well pleased with the progress students are making. He has also been visiting the senior girls' advisor rooms during recent weeks to observe the workings of the personnel system used at New Trier.

LAUDS TRI-SHIP CLUB

Mr. Gaffney, in commenting on the Tri-Ship club said: "I would like to congratulate the Tri-Ship club on the splendid success of its campaign to improve conditions in the Mess hall. It has helped greatly, and I sincerely hope that conditions continue to improve, so that faculty supervision will not be necessary."

GIRLS ARE SWIMMING

The swimming season has opened for the girls. With the new point system of five points for every week of practice, many girls ought to be anxious to join the fun. And don't forget how "spiffy" you'll look in one of the new tank suits, the girls are reminded.

Student Gives Version of Lighting Conditions

During the past week the lack of sufficient light in the halls and classrooms has caused considerable disturbance among the students. Girls going to and from gym are apt to run into each other or into posts in the dark field house. Visitors such as the ladies who attended the luncheon in the Girl's Club room on Monday has a great deal of difficulty in finding their way about in the semi-darkness. Girls come out of the half lighted dressing room oddly arrayed in each other's socks and gym suits. Pupils appear in classes with the wrong books because of the dimly lighted halls. It is a serious inconvenience. May we make a plea that the book store order a supply of caps with little lamps on the front such as the miners wear as they carry on their work in the underground?

Track Men Make 57 Points to Win Triangular Clash

The track men of New Trier made it a clean sweep of the week-end sporting events by winning a triangular meet from Evanston and Proviso at the fieldhouse last Saturday. The score was New Trier, 57; Evanston, 51; Proviso, 11.

Capt. George Quinlan, for the second time in as many meets, equaled the world record for the 50-yard dash by winning from Pierce of Evanston in the time of :05.4.

Pierce, competing in his last meet, was again high scorer with 1634 points. He won both the hurdle events, placed second in the 50-yard dash and the broad jump, and ran on the relay team which placed second.

The meet wasn't decided until the last event, the broad jump in which Wanger beat out Pierce by one-half inch.

Jimmy Kingsley of New Trier pulled a surprise by winning the pole vault with a jump of 10 feet. Kingsley cleared it on his first try and probably could have gone higher if pressed.

Engels Is "Iron Man"

Engels of Evanston performed an iron-man feat by winning the mile and placing second in the half-mile. He finished smiling in both of them and looked as if he could do another mile without any difficulty.

The shot putters, Schumann, Hilpert and Nordberg, came through again by placing first, third and fourth, respectively.

Emerson High of Gary is the next visitor to New Trier fieldhouse in a dual meet to be held next Saturday.

N. T. Basketeers Keep First Place; Beat Morton Five

New Trier's basketball team rounded out the first half of its schedule undefeated when they downed the Morton basketeers, 22-18, last Friday at Leslie F. Gates gymnasium.

Things looked bad at the end of the first half with the score 11-5 against New Trier basketeers, who didn't seem to work their attack, because Morton intercepted about every pass and had control of the ball most of the time.

The start of the third quarter was little better, Morton running the score up to 16-5. Then things began to pop. A basket by Joslin and then one by Gordon brought the crowd to its feet. Then Joslin put in three more in quick succession, along with a free throw that tied the score at 16-16 as the quarter ended. The last quarter saw the Morton team demoralized. Joslin put in another basket and a free toss while Finlayson added a basket and Sinding, a charity toss to complete New Trier's scoring. The best Morton could do was to sink two free throws.

Co-Captain Church Is Ill

New Trier played without the services of Co-Captain Church who is out of school with a bad cold, but Williams performed ably in his place. Joslin kept his hold on first place in the scoring race by dropping in six baskets and three free throws for 15 points. He has made eight out of eight free tosses in the last two games.

New Trier's ponies took it on the chin again, this time by the score of 30-19. Morton displayed a smooth-passing quintet that had possession of the ball most of the time. Zahrobsky of Morton collected 10 points, while Kelly garnered two baskets and two free throws for 6 points for New Trier.

In a preliminary game, the Morton Frosh-Soph team inflicted the first defeat on the New Trier boys, by a score of 38-23.
