

Church, Nominee for Congressman, Gives Platform

Ralph E. Church, the Republican nominee for Congress from the Tenth Congressional district, returned to Evanston Saturday from Catlin, Ill., where he was called Thursday due to his father being dangerously ill. After getting a report on the results of the official canvass, he issued the following statement:

"Although from my own tabulation of election returns I have from the beginning felt confident of my nomination, I am of course gratified to know that the official canvass of the vote in the Tenth Congressional District declared me the Republican nominee for Congress. The victory is clearly due to the keen response on the part of the public today to my consistent demand for governmental economy and lower taxation.

"The primary clearly shows that the great majority of the voters in this district are Republican. I shall count it a responsibility, as well as an honor, to campaign in their interest for the following measures which I emphasized in my primary campaign:

"(a) Balancing of the federal budget by utmost retrenchment in national expenditures.

"(b) Abolition of the bureaucracy fostered by present members of Congress.

"(c) Withdrawal of the federal government from paternalistic experiments and competition with business.

"(d) Submission to the people of an amendment to the Eighteenth Amendment, which while not permitting the return of the saloon will be sufficiently broad in scope and powers to permit a substitute plan of state or national liquor control, in order to abolish as quickly as possible the evils which have arisen under the Eighteenth Amendment.

"(e) Immediate modification of the Volstead Act so as to legalize and tax the manufacture and sale of wine and beer and give to the government in the form of taxes the millions of dollars which now go to the bootleggers."

Christian Science Churches

"Everlasting Punishment" was the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 1.

The Golden text was, "Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness" (Galatians 6:1).

Among the citations which comprised the lesson-sermon was the following from the Bible: "Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the law of the Lord; and in his law doth he meditate day and night. For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish" (Psalms 1:1, 2, 6).

The lesson-sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Error excludes itself from harmony. Sin is its own punishment" (p. 537).

Mrs. William J. Ferris, 1036 Isabella street, will entertain members of her circle of the North Shore Methodist church next Tuesday afternoon at her home.
