Plan Commission

The permanent plan commission of Kenilworth will be the same this year as last year, with one exception. Walter A. Knoop has replaced Arthur B. Adair. The full membership of the commission is: Lloyd M. Willis, chairman, Walter A. Knoop, secretary, James C. Murray, Harry P. Harrison, Henry G. Zander, Jr., and Village President Ralph R. Hawhurst, ex-officio.

The zoning commission will be the same as last year, with the following members: Charles D. Howe, chairman, Walter Botthof, secretary, James C. Murray, Harry P. Harrison and Henry G. Zander, Jr.

Members of the zoning board of appeals and architectural commission serve for terms of five years, one member's term expiring each year. Charles D. Howe's term expired this spring, and in order to give the newer section of Kenilworth west of the tracks representation on the board of appeals and architectural commission Herman G. Seely was appointed to fill the vacancy. Other members are Robert S. Smith, Walter N. Gillett, Lloyd M. Willis and Harry E. Weese.

The various appointive officers and officials for the year are: Village manager and collector, F. L. Streed; Village treasurer, Harry E. Weese; Village attorney, Elmer E. Jackson; building commissioner, Richard C. Johnston; health commissioner, Dr. H. A. Orvis; engineer, Frank A. Windes; forester, Henry G. Zander, Jr.; superintendent of police, Walter C. Yackel, and plumbing and electrical inspector, Clement C. Ley.

CARD PARTY

The Royal Neighbors will have a card and bunco party Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Charles F. Beinlick, 2343 Wilmette avenue.

BACK FROM CONVENTION

The two delegates from the Highcrest Parent-Teacher association, Mrs. George Mayfield, president, and Mrs. Myrtle Hezelburg, membership chairman, have returned from the thirty-third annual convention of Parent-Teacher associations held at Rockford April 19-21. They will give a complete report of the convention at the next meeting on Tuesday, May 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Clark moved this week from 1317 Greenwood avenue, Wilmette, to their new home at 140 Hazel avenue, Glencoe.
