An Ideal Home

In the design and furnishings of our funeral home we have carefully avoided any unnecessary suggestions of gloom. The entire establishment has been planned with the aim of duplicating the comfort and good taste of a representative modern home. For the funeral home is intended to be just that—a second home to the bereaved family, offering them the same comfort and privacy that they would enjoy in their own residence with the additional facilities needed at the time.

GOOD to the LAST STOP

STOP just a minute and think how important cleanliness and good lubrication is to a machine that makes over 1,000 revolutions a minute. Before you take to the highway this summer, stop in and let us give your FORD Car an expert once-over. You will be repaid in better mileage and more driving satisfaction.
