William M. Gay Dies;
Funeral Held Monday

William M. Gay, husband of Mrs. Sarah McClure Gay, 929 Twelfth street, died last Friday. The funeral services were held Monday afternoon at Scott's funeral home, 1118 Greenleaf avenue, and burial took place at the Maine Township cemetery, Des Plaines.

Dr. Horace G. Smith of the Wilmette Parish Methodist church conducted the services. He was assisted by the Rev. George L. McClanathan of Sterling, Ill., a nephew of Mr. Gay.

Besides his widow, Mr. Gay is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Margaret Gay Webster of Highland Park, Miss Blanche E. Gay of Wilmette and Mrs. Jessie Gay Campbell of Paauhau, Hawaii, and by three grandchildren, Gay and Jean Webster and Billy Campbell.

Summer Class
at High School to Present Play

The summer school dramatics class conducted by Gordon Van Kirk at New Trier High school will present the four-act comedy, "The New Lady Bantock" by Jerome K. Jerome, Friday night, August 5, in the high school auditorium.

Since the opening of the New Trier summer school the dramatics class, under the direction of Mr. Van Kirk, has been reading and studying plays by the best modern authors. Another feature of the work of the class is to obtain experience in the acting and producing of plays. For this reason "The New Lady Bantock" is being presented.

Following is the cast for the production:

Fanny	Joy Stover
Vernon Wetherell	Lord Bantock
Martin Bennet	Ned Shapker
Susannah Bennet	Tom Wilson
Jane Bennet	Elizabeth Boldenweck
Ernest Bennet	Catherine Hepburn
Honoraria Bennet	Roy Rennacker
The Mrs. Wetherells	Elizabeth Jannotta
and Margaret Cobb	Florence Carey
Dr. Freemantle	Bill Miller
George P. Newte	William Rothschild

Mrs. Celia Churchill
Dies in Shreveport, La.

Mrs. Celia Churchill, mother of Mrs. B. C. Davison, 1437 Forest avenue, died late Saturday night at the home of another daughter, Mrs. Florence Reed, in Shreveport, La. Mrs. Churchill was 79 years old and a pioneer resident of Oak Park. In recent years, however, she had made her home in Shreveport. She was the widow of Andrew Z. Churchill, who died six years ago. Funeral services for Mrs. Churchill were held Tuesday afternoon in Oak Park, with burial at Forest Home cemetery.

HEAR POLICE CHIEF

On Monday evening of this week the monthly tankside dinner of the Shawnee Sharks was held at Shawnee Country club. William Freeman, Evanston chief of police, was the speaker of the evening.

Miss Dorothy Kramer of Milwaukee, Wis., has been spending a few weeks in Wilmette visiting friends. She has been the guest of Miss Regina Fonham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Fonham of 121 Third street, for several days.

THREE PRAIRIE FIRES

The Wilmette Fire department made three runs in the week ending Tuesday, July 26, all of them to extinguish prairie fires that resulted in no damage. One of the three fires occurred at 1927 Thornwood avenue last Thursday morning, and the other two Monday morning of this week at 111 Linden avenue and at Ridge road and Thornwood avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. David Nelson of 821 Elmwood avenue are at their summer home on Chambers' Island in Wisconsin. Mrs. Nelson will remain there for the summer, while Mr. Nelson will spend his time between there and Wilmette.

Miss Marian Langdon, 715 Laurel avenue, returned on Wednesday from a week's visit with Miss Evelyn Purcell of West Frankfort, Ill. Miss Langdon and Miss Purcell were members of the Alpha Gamma Delta sorority at the University of Illinois.
