

WANT WORK, NOT CHARITY, PLEA

of nine children remind him that they must be cared for, attended the party. His wife must stay home to look after that family. The father is a capable man. He is doing his best under the Wilmette plan.

It would be easily possible to fill two or three pages of WILMETTE LIFE with other instances of real need that exist right now "in our midst." The few I have given are sufficient to indicate that "heroism" is not confined to or monopolized by the spectacular. Here is a brand of it, developed by the "times" which rarely appears in the newspapers; a brand that is very rare in the business world. You do not often hear a man giving up business in order that some competitor may get it. Do you?

Don't Want Charity

The men and women whom the Wilmette plan is intended to benefit DO NOT WANT CHARITY at all. They DO want WORK. It is just as certain as it is that night follows day, that unless those who ARE EMPLOYED provide that work to meet the emergency that now exists CHARITY must follow. We CANNOT let these people, and their little ones, who LIVE in Wilmette starve.

If you have not yet responded to the request of the committee to send in your name as one who will agree to employ some man or woman around your home for at least one hour per week at 50 cents per hour, WILL YOU PLEASE DO SO just as soon as you finish reading this article? If you can render any assistance to the movement by canvassing your block to that same end, just call Charles L. Lerch, 1715 Highland avenue, and tell him about it. His telephone is Wilmette 4391.

Booths for exhibition will be erected by the men participating in the exhibition. Electric lights for evening exhibition, protection from rain and night storage will be provided. Each artist will have a space six by six feet which he may divide with others if he wishes. Besides paintings in oil, prints, sketches and handicraft of all kinds are invited. No commissions will be charged on sales made and there will be no jury.

An exhibition fee of $2.50 will be charged to cover cost of materials and lighting.
