James T. Veneklasen, minister

We are uniting in Union Sunday services with the Congregational and Baptist churches, meeting at the Congregational church at 11 o'clock. The Rev. James T. Veneklasen will be the preacher, his subject for Sunday being, "Great Words of Jesus—SEEK." This is the third in a series on the Great Words of Jesus. We cordially invite not only the members of these three churches but visitors to Wilmette and those who are without a church home, to worship with us.

The Congregational church choir will furnish the music for the service.

The Presbyterian Sunday school will meet at the Woman's club rooms at 9:30 for its usual session.

The pastor is ready to be of service in a pastoral way not only to the members of the three churches, but to others in need. Arrangements for such services may be made through Mrs. Nellie Boltwood, 723 Park avenue, phone Wilmette 688.

The union services of the three churches will close with a union communion service at the Baptist church Sunday, September 4, at 11 o'clock. Arrangements are being made for this service.

Rev. J. H. Gockel will again occupy our pulpit Sunday at both services. His sermon will be "The Churches Greatest Members."

Let us not forsake the assembling of ourselves together, but take part in public worship even if it is connected with difficulties. Permit nothing to keep you from going to church, for there you hear the Word that will strengthen your faith and comfort you in the trials of this life.

Oh, make Thy church, dear Savior
A lamb of burnished gold,
To bear before the nations
Thy true light as of old;
Oh, teach Thy wandering pilgrims
By this, their path to praise
Till, clouds and darkness ended,
They see Thee face to face.
