

Play for Women's 1932 Championship at Wilmette Club

Play for the 1932 women's championship of the Wilmette Golf club started Tuesday of this week. Champions in the three classes—A, B and C—will be decided today (Thursday).

In the first round of the Class A tournament Tuesday Mrs. Sam W. Shipp of Wilmette defeated Mrs. W. E. Brochon of Evanston, Mrs. Roger B. Little of Evanston eliminated Mrs. Nat Armel of Chicago, and Mrs. Daniel F. Comstock of Evanston won from Mrs. G. R. Garretson of Wilmette. Mrs. Glen E. Dewey drew a bye.

First round winners in the Class B tournament were Mrs. J. H. Milliken, wife of the club president, Mrs. S. A. Grady, Mrs. A. E. Roberg and Miss L. Brown. Mrs. Milliken defeated Mrs. Earl Shultz. Mrs. Grady won from Mrs. R. W. Blanchard, Mrs. Robey from Mrs. F. Patrick Machler and Miss Brown from Mrs. A. E. Long.

Survivors of first round play in the Class C tournament were Mrs. C. R. Williams, who eliminated Mrs. K. G. Baur, Mrs. O. C. Brodhay, who trimmed Mrs. V. C. Ward, Mrs. W. H. Potter, who won from Mrs. C. W. Seanor, and Miss D. Lazear, who defeated Mrs. J. C. Sanderson.

Daughter of Swimming Coach Is Noted Diver

Miss Claudia Eckert, daughter of George Eckert, the swimming instructor at Shawnee Country club, placed fifth in the ladies' high board diving championship held at State Park, Long Island, N. Y., early in July for the purpose of selecting girls to represent the United States in the Olympic games at Los Angeles this summer.

By her splendid performance in the face of the most skillful competition Miss Eckert has earned the distinction of being among the five greatest woman divers in the world.

The competition at the trials was so intense, and so nearly perfect were the dives of the contestants that the judges were forced to use fractions as low as hundredths of a point in differentiating between the divers' abilities.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hedrick of 304 Melrose avenue, Kenilworth, their daughter, Marion, and Mr. and Mrs. John Boylston of 1302 Chestnut avenue, and their daughter, Mrs. Roy Rennackar of Winnetka left Friday evening for a week's boat trip to Duluth. The Hedricks will go on a fishing trip on their return.

Mrs. Frances Taubert Opens Dress Shop Here

Mrs. Frances Taubert, who has been in business on the north shore for the past five years, this week opened a new dress shop at 1183 Wilmette avenue in the location formerly occupied by the Mary Ann shop. Mrs. Lucy Bell, who was manager of the Mary Ann shop, will be manager of Mrs. Taubert's shop.

Mrs. Taubert formerly conducted her business from her home. In her new quarters she feels that she will be able to serve better her large clientele. She has just returned from New York where she purchased her stock of fall clothes. The new shop is handling a moderately priced line.

Associated with Mrs. Taubert, besides Mrs. Bell, will be Miss Margaret Stults of Winnetka and Miss Minnie Mae Kerr of Wilmette.

Mrs. Edith Normoyle will sell children's dresses in the new shop instead of at her home, as she has done in the past. Mrs. Normoyle also has just returned from a buying trip to New York.

Miss Florence Branson, 817 Central avenue, who is at present at the Cliff Dwellers, Chimney Rock, N. C., will return Monday from a month's visit to Asheville, N. C. She will motor home accompanied by friends from Evanston and St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Peake and family, 1141 Sheridan road, left Sunday by plane for Red Crown Lodge, Eagle River, Wis.
