The High School league will meet this Sunday evening at 5:30 at the home of Miriam West, 723 Ashland avenue. Book Review: "Larry"; music: Robert Geiger of Northwestern university on his musical saw. All high school students are cordially invited.

The Young People's department will meet Sunday evening at 6 o'clock in the Girl Scout room. The speaker for the evening will be announced in the Sunday bulletin. All young people above high school age are urged to attend.

The service of Fellowship for Prayer and Praise will be resumed next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in the Junior room. All members and friends of the church are urged to be present and to bring a friend.

"Prohibition" is the topic for discussion in the Friendly Circle class on Sunday morning, October 30. Mrs. West will discuss the Quarterly lesson on Temperance, and women of the class will give the outline of the Wickersham Report, state the Democratic and Republican platforms on the question, and outline the attitude of the church toward it. Mesdames Colgrove, Varley, Matson, Cochran, L. W. Jones, and Martin will lead the discussions. Women of the church are cordially invited to attend.

The Friendly circle will observe "Witches' Night" at its regular monthly meeting on Monday, October 24. The women will meet at the usual hour of 8 o'clock at the church and will go out from there. Hostesses: Mesdames Colgrove, Dawson, Burrows, and West.

A Rummage sale is being sponsored by the Woman's Aid society today and tomorrow, Thursday and Friday. All women of the church are asked to leave articles at 1141 Greenleaf avenue or notify one of the following women: Mrs. H. O. Crews, Miss Cora Thompson, Mrs. E. J. Hoffman, Mrs. W. E. Lindblad, Miss Laura Collen, Mrs. R. J. Burrows.

All women of the church are asked to meet tomorrow, Friday, at the Woman's club to sew for Lake Bluff orphanage. The Woman's club will provide the materials, and all Methodist women are urged to help with the sewing.

The Annual Harvest Home dinner will be held Friday evening, October 28. Reservations should be made by Tuesday evening, October 25 with one of the division chairmen or with Mrs. E. M. Stafford, Wilmette 4082. All families in the church are asked to reserve this date and to place their reservations immediately.

The Chicago Methodist Social Union will hold its fall banquet on Tuesday, October 25, at the Medinah Athletic club. Bishop Ernest Lynn Waldorf will make his initial bow before Chicago Methodism. It is hoped that there will be at least one thousand guests at this banquet. The union is not selling memberships this year, but is selling tickets for each individual occasion. Reservations should be made with Thomas H. West, and R. G. Kimbell, or at the church office. Remember the date—Tuesday, October 25, at the Medinah Athletic club.

MEETINGS

Friday, 7:45 p. m.—Junior Walther league
Saturday, 9 a. m.—Classes for children
Monday—Choir rehearsal
Wednesday—Classes for children

The Ladies' Aid and Missionary society is meeting this afternoon in the Sunday school room to sew for the United Charities. We are sure that there will be a good attendance as these ladies all enjoy the sewing circle meeting and especially when sewing for such a worthy cause.

The Junior Walther league will have another interesting meeting on Friday of this week. The spirit shown by these young people this fall has been a great pleasure for the older members of the church and should be an inspiration to all the young members to come and make this meeting a success.

St. John's church extends a cordial invitation to all new residents of Wilmette. Adequate facilities for religious education are provided and the Sunday morning services are devotional and uplifting. It is a pleasure to have you worship with us!

Baptist Church

Wilmette and Forest avenues
George D. Allison, minister

"A Church that Cares"

Dr. Allison has for the past several Sundays used as a basis for his very inspiring and challenging sermons the content of the early chapters of Genesis. Invite your friends and neighbors to attend the morning worship of the church at 11 o'clock.

Next Sunday morning at the morning worship hour, the message will be brought to us by the Rev. Robert Gordon, D. D., who is well known among us as an inspiring and eloquent speaker.

Tuesday, October 25, is the date of the Children's Home bazaar at Maywood.

Wednesday evenings we continue our discussion of the "Personality of Jesus" with a study of his characteristics as revealed in the New Testament incidents.

On Friday, Saturday and Sunday, October 28, 29, and 30, our Illinois Baptist State convention meets at Champaign. Dr. Allison is to deliver two of the addresses. Perhaps a goodly number of our people can make the trip.

October 23 is the beginning of Girl Scout week. We have two fine troops in this church, Troops 7 and 11, under the leadership of Mrs. P. J. Church, Mrs. E. O. Anderson, Mrs. Percy Arden and Miss Florence Mitchell, respectively. On Girl Scout Sunday they will attend the service in a body and participate in it.

The Young People's society meeting at 6 o'clock Sunday evening will be sponsored by the Devotional Life commission, Joan Guthridge, director. William Meredith of Wheaton, whom many of us met at Camp Gray, is to be our speaker. His topic is to be "Drama."

The Adult class Halloween party will be held at the church on Friday evening of this week. It is a costume party, but rather the opposite of "fancy" dress. Come ready for a lot of fun.

The young people will have their commission meetings at the church on Friday evening at 7:30, in Children's hall, following which there will be a party, planned by the Fellowship commission.

Announcement will be made through the Sunday bulletin of the Woman's society Link meetings next week.

First Presbyterian

Woman's club rooms

Tenth street at Greenleaf avenue
James T. Veneklasen, minister

Our worship service is held at 11 o'clock Sunday morning. The minister will preach on the theme, "Roads to Happiness—Self-Discipline." This is the second in the series of studies of the Beatitudes, Jesus' great list of those who find happiness. We invite you to worship with us.

Our Sunday school meets at 9:30 for study of the Bible. We have departments and classes for all ages. We invite you to join us.

The Men's Bible class meets at 9:40 o'clock for the study of the Gospel of John. We invite the men of the community.

Junior church is held at 11 o'clock during the morning worship hour to care for the children whose parents wish to attend worship.

The Christian Endeavor society, which is increasing weekly in attendance and interest, will meet with Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Bennett, 1033 Ashland avenue at 5:30 o'clock. The topic for discussion will be: "How Does the Teaching of Jesus Change Business?" Frank Eager, Jr., will lead the meeting.

The spokes of the Woman's society will meet at follows: No. 2 with Mrs. H. R. Beckwith, 603 Central avenue, at 1 o'clock Tuesday; No. 10 with Mrs. Milton Barker, 730 Central avenue, at 1 o'clock Tuesday; No. 12 with Mrs. Harry Pine, 2143 Beechwood avenue, at 11 o'clock, with Mrs. Harold Condit co-hostess.

Our prayer meeting is held on Wednesday evening at the Woman's club rooms, at 8 o'clock. We will study this week the first of the "Psalms of the Soul—Psalm 1."

The Christian Endeavor society will hold a beach party this Friday evening, October 21, beginning at 6 o'clock, at the Forest avenue beach. Individual suppers must be brought, but the committee will furnish the dessert. Camp fire and games will follow the supper.

St. Augustine's

Next Sunday, October 23, will be the twenty-second Sunday after Trinity. There will be Holy Communion at 8 a. m., Church schools and Bible classes at 9:45, and morning prayer with address at 11 o'clock.

Friday, October 28, will be St. Simon's and St. Jude's day. There will be Holy Communion at 8 a. m.

The vestry of the church met last evening in the church offices.

A preliminary meeting of the canvassers for the coming annual canvass was held Monday evening in the church offices.

A delegation of St. Augustine's Church school teachers will attend the regular session of the north shore school for teachers tonight at Christ church Parish house, Winnetka.
