

Golden Harvest Days

Specials

Tuesday to Saturday

Red Crown & Ethyl Gasoline	1 ^c off
Polarine, 6 qts.	$1
Iso Vis., 5 qts.	$1
Car washed	75 ^c
Car greased	75 ^c
Hot water heaters	20% off
Atlas tires	15% off
Alcohol, per gal.	70 ^c
$10 coupon books, good for any merchandise	$9

THE OIL WELL

Bob 'n' Mac
Main St. at Linden Ave.
Phone Wilmette 3334
Let's Go to Sweetheart Town

CHURCH BAZAAR NO. 16

In connection with the fortieth anniversary of the dedication of the Kenilworth Union church, on November 6, the Woman's guild will hold a bazaar, Wednesday, November 16, in the Guild room of the church. Household and fancy goods, aprons, foods, jellies, and candy will be on sale. Afternoon tea will be served and an entertainment will be given in the evening, for which a nominal fee will be charged.

ANNIVERSARY PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. William Johnsen, 1803 Walnut street, celebrated their second wedding anniversary last Saturday at an evening bridge party for twelve guests. At a midnight supper the table was attractively decorated with chrysanthemums and bright colored autumn leaves.

TO ENTERTAIN CIRCLE

The Neighborhood circle of the Congregational church will meet next Tuesday afternoon for luncheon and sewing at the home of Mrs. Frank J. Scheidenhelm, 804 Forest avenue. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. William A. Durgin, Mrs. A. H. Howard, and Mrs. H. A. Pope.

AT CONVENTION

Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Hammond of the Hammond Ice Ice Kitchen are attending the Convention and Exposition of the Dairy Industries held at Detroit this week.

Cullison Motor Company

Complete Automobile Repair and Service Shop
Specializing in Fords
725 Main St. Wilmette 266

Guest of Honor

Mrs. William Finney Williamsson, 324 Sheridan road, Kenilworth, newly elected regent of the Chicago chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, is to be guest of honor at a reception given for her by the chapter, the oldest and largest in the world, Thursday afternoon, October 20, from 3 until 5, in the Stevens hotel.

LECTURES ON RUSSIA

Mrs. Albert W. Dilling of Kenilworth will deliver a lecture Friday evening, October 21, at St. Luke's Parish House, Evanston. Her subject will be "Russian Religion: There and Here." The lecture will be accompanied by motion pictures taken by Mrs. Dilling during her years in Russia following the revolution. The lecture is sponsored by Group No. 7 of the St. Luke's Woman's guild.

GIVE BRIDGE SUPPER

Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Suekoff, 819 Chestnut avenue, entertained at a bridge buffet supper Monday, which was a surprise in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bernstein of Chicago who are moving to Minneapolis. Bert Collins of New York, and Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Leven and their three daughters of Chicago were week-end guests of the Suekoffs.

FOUR FIRE CALLS

Wilmette fireman made four runs in the week ending Tuesday, October 18. Three of them were to extinguish automobile blazes, each of which caused only slight damage. The fourth call also involved an automobile. A pile of leaves was burning under the car, but did not set fire to the machine itself.

Miss Caroline and Miss Betty Schwarm, sophomores at James Millikin university, were initiated into Pi Beta Phi sorority Friday evening, October 14. They are the twin daughters of Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Schwarm, 925 Ashland avenue.

Mrs. Robert Peacock of Chicago was the guest for several days during the early part of the week, of her daughter, Mrs. Kingsley Colton, 354 Kenilworth avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Nystrom, 714 Central avenue, are returning on Saturday from a week's motor trip through Indiana. They made a special visit to Brown country.

Costume Shop Is New Project to Aid Settlement

A Costume shop, the first of its kind on the north shore, is to open in Winnetka October 29, under auspices of the Winnetka board of Northwestern University settlement. "It will fill a place here hitherto unfilled" the committee announces, "for it will make available both to adults and children, fancy dress costumes at reasonable rental."

From families in these villages, costumes are solicited by the committee, "costumes or portions of costumes, no matter in what condition, will find a good home with us." Mrs. John P. Hooker of 600 Bermeley avenue, Winnetka, the chairman, stresses. Any contributions will be eagerly received and collected if she is notified. In a room in her home costumes will be cleaned, repaired, remade, and, when in order, will hang on a rack in The Stork, 747 Elm street, Winnetka, where Mrs. Harold Wilder will receive calls.

Children's costumes are especially solicited at this season. Mrs. Hooker emphasizes. Other members of her committee are Mrs. Allen Withers, Mrs. George Calkins, Mrs. Ernst von Ammon, Mrs. Edwin Price, Mrs. Martin Lindsay, Mrs. Towner K. Webster, Jr., and Mrs. Walter Strong.

Roller skates, ice skates, and riding boots the committee also is seeking, and it has on hand for special occasions, a platform and canvas that may be rented.

Show Potter Portrait at N. U. Alumnae Tea

Associate alumnae of Northwestern university will give a tea Friday afternoon, October 28, from 4 until 6 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Edward P. Welles, 1315 Forest avenue, Evanston. A recently completed portrait of Miss Mary Ross Potter, formerly dean of women at Northwestern university for twenty-six years, will be exhibited at this time.

The portrait, which is the work of Charles Sneed Williams, will be presented by the Associate alumnae to the women of Northwestern and will hang in the new Deering library until a Woman's building materializes.

Sponsors of the portrait are Mesdames Charles O. Barnes, Perkins B. Bass, Edson B. Fowler, Ulysses S. Grant, William T. Hall, William Hudson Harper, Carl R. Latham, Arthur M. Long, John Harper Long, George A. Paddock, James A. Patten, George H. Peaks, Norman F. Rehm, Frank L. Richardson, Walter Dill Scott, Edward P. Welles, John H. Wigmore, and the late Mrs. James F. Oates.

In the receiving line will be Mrs. Welles, Miss Potter, the guest of honor; Mrs. Fowler, president of the alumnae; and Mrs. Richardson and Mrs. Paddock.

Miss Marion Thayer of Kenilworth and Miss Helen Evans of Wilmette attended the Illinois-Northwestern football game at Champaign last week-end. While there they were the guests of Mrs. Edward Potthoff, the former Jean Drayer of Wilmette.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster E. Fike, 1241 Forest avenue, motored to Champaign last week-end for the Illinois-Northwestern football game and to visit Mr. Fike's son, Bradford, who is a sophomore at the university.

Mrs. George Cole, 322 Kenilworth avenue, Kenilworth, entertained some south-side friends at a bridge luncheon Thursday of last week.

SAVE MONEY...and TROUBLE BUY NEW TIRES NOW

Fall is really the logical time of the year to equip your car with new tires. Bad driving days are ahead—Rain, Mud, Ice, Sleet, Snow! You want the protection of new tires for Fall and Winter driving. Furthermore, cold weather is easy on tires—so in Spring your tires will be practically as good as new. Come in—let's talk over a trade-in on a set of new

Goodyear All-Weathers

Lifetime Guaranteed!

GOODYEAR PATHFINDER Supertwist Cord

SIZE	PRICE OF EACH	EACH IN PAIRS
28x4.10-21	$5.39	$10.50
28x4.50-20	5.99	11.66
30x4.50-21	6.10	11.90
28x4.75-19	6.97	13.60
28x4.75-20	7.15	13.90
29x5.00-19	7.38	14.32
30x5.00-20	7.48	14.54
31x5.25-21	8.98	17.46

Wilmette Battery & Electric Service
740 Twelfth St. Phone Wil. 691-696

Let's Go to Sweetheart Town