This year villagers will be asked to consider first the needs of their own Board of Local Charities. ## Kenilworth Wants Rail Stop Shelter

The Chicago, North Shore and Milwaukee railroad will be requested to erect a shelter at the northbound platform of its Kenilworth avenue stop in Kenilworth. This was decided at the regular monthly meeting of the Kenilworth Village board Monday night, when Trustee Porter Fox, chairman of the special North Shore line franchise committee of the board, was appointed to take the matter up with officials of the railroad.

Sometime ago when individual citizens asked that the Kenilworth board take steps to bring about the erection of a shelter, that body decided to go to the Kenilworth Neighbors for an opinion on the matter. The Neighbors recommended that shelters be provided at the Kenilworth avenue stop, especially at the northbound platform, which is located just south of Kenilworth avenue.

The Village board thereupon decided to take the matter up with the railroad officials.

Merchants Boost Food Barrel Project Here

Wilmette business men, as well as their customers, are cooperating in making the food barrel project sponsored by the local Chamber of Commerce a decided success. In order to encourage villagers to drop food in the barrels, which have been placed in a large number of stores in the village, many of the merchants are offering "food barrel specials," such as an extra loaf of bread or some other item for one cent. In taking phone orders, too, the merchants are cooperating in a similar manner. The contents of the barrels are emptied regularly by the Wilmette Board of Local Charities and distributed among needy families of the village.

Favor Courtney

In the race for governor of Illinois, however, Republican New Trier swerved heavily to the Democratic column, giving Henry Horner a total vote of 14,326, as against 3,300 for ex-Governor Len Small, his Republican opponent.

Also, in the instance of the battle for the post of state's attorney, New Trier again went over to the Democratic side to give Thomas J. Courtney a large majority over John A. Swanson, Republican incumbent. Courtney received 10,641 to Swanson's 6,755.

James Simpson, Jr., Republican candidate for Congress from the 10th district, was given a majority in New Trier, with Ralph E. Church, Independent, cutting heavily into Simpson's vote to get the runner-up position. Charles H. Weber, the Democratic candidate, ran third. The tabulation showed Simpson with 8,139, Church with 5,086, and Weber with 3,834.

Complimentary Vote

Emmett McGrath, Democrat, was given 13,634, while Frank E. Foster, Republican, polled 11,421½. All these candidates are elected since the ballot was merely complimentary.
