

If It's a Furred Coat You Want Here's the Buy of the Season!

We know whereof we speak, because we've looked and shopped and compared, and we know you couldn't touch these models anywhere at under $49.50. Small wonder, then, that we are proud to present them at our November sale price.

$38

In the first place, the fabrics will delight you! They are all the new crepey materials of soft wool in black and sponsored colors. And every coat is silk-lined throughout, and warmly interlined. And the furs are luxurious beautiful skins, smartly blending or lending rich contrast. Sizes for women, misses, juniors and larger women.
