

1932-33 STAFF

Emma Bickham... Consulting Editor
 June Kehl... Managing Editors
 Cecilia Wagner...
 Priscilla Wheelock... Girls' Athletics
 Lawrence Buckmaster... Boys' Athletics
 Muriel Waters... Inquiring Reporter
 Samuel Rockwell... Humor
 Louise Cowan... Editorials

Reporters: Jeanette Post, Judith Fox,
 Beth McIlraith, Florence Sellery, Janet
 Chatten, Charlotte Harvey.

A TREAT AWAITS YOU

The dramatic season will be hailed on November 18 and 19 by a great and unsurpassed performance of "The Road to Yesterday." Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontanne could not inspire you more than do our actors and actresses. Their poise, diction, their very movements will furnish you with unsuppressible delight.

See the future American stars of the stage make their first appearances. You probably didn't see Ethel Barrymore in her first appearance. It can't be helped now. We're giving you the chance to see future Barrymores in their premier appearances. Come and watch them play to a packed house and hear the cheers and applause of the crowd in awe and amazement at the talent displayed by the young players.

You will not only enjoy yourself immensely, but will be justifiably proud of the efforts of the cast and directors. You will heartily approve of this thoroughly educating activity.

The time and effort spent on these performances is doubly repaid if we are sure of your delight and commendation. Come and enjoy yourself.

Keen Rivalry Features
N. T. Debating Season

The outstanding feature of New Trier debating this year is to be the keen competition both for positions on the team and for inter-scholastic supremacy.

The preliminary meetings this year have revealed that almost all of last year's veterans are back and "rarin' to go." These include James Donahue, Bruce Ellison, Glen Walker and Chick Anderson. However, these experienced men expect to find it "keen going" against the remarkably fine new material that is developing. These recruits will be organized into teams of three, each coached by a veteran debater and scheduled to appear in an elimination contest which will enable Coach Chester E. MacLean to choose a team.

Competition in inter-scholastic debating also looms. Al Ackerman, debate manager, has so far scheduled debates with schools in Rockford, Ill., Waukegan, Ill., Cleveland, Ohio, and Calumet High school in Chicago.

N. T. Scriblerus Club
Elects 4 New Members

At a special call meeting of the Scriblerus club, held on November 3 in Room 315, four new members were elected. This leaves one vacancy, which will be filled soon. Election to Scriblerus is by a tryout judged by all the members of club. When a favorable majority vote has been reached on any given tryout, the person is elected.

The four students chosen November 3 were: Jean Eldredge, Helen Marie Bellows, Jane Fitzgerald and Sue Neeves. The next meeting of the club will be held on Thursday, November 17, in the Girls' club room. Florence Carey is president of the Scriblerus club, composed of students interested in creative writing.

Mary Ellen Graham, '32, pledged Alpha Phi at the University of Illinois, and is a member of the editorial staff of the Daily Illini.

New Trier Gets Ready for Slice of League Title

New Trier trounced Deerfield by the overwhelming score of 42 to 14, at Deerfield Saturday, gaining an undisputed claim on second position in the Suburban league race, and a chance to tie Evanston for the championship in the event of a victory over that team this next Saturday at New Trier.

The best game that New Trier has played this year bowled over Deerfield, which was no set-up, as it had tied Proviso the Saturday before. Proviso is the only team that has defeated New Trier this season.

New Trier started off late in the first quarter with a touchdown after two long passes to Smale had brought the ball to the Deerfield five-yard line. Dahl tried a line buck but was stopped. Smale carried the oval to the one-yard line; Dahl then pushed it over for the first touchdown. He made the try for extra point.

Deerfield Shows Power

Deerfield crossed the New Trier goal line twice in the second quarter. The first touchdown was scored on a series of hard line drives, and P. Allen finally carried the pigskin across. Peterson kicked the extra point. New Trier fumbled on its own 30-yard line and on the next play a long pass from Allen to Peterson was complete for the second Deerfield touchdown. Peterson made the extra point.

New Trier came back with a rally and put the ball over twice in the second quarter. Nordberg passed 35 yards to Ballenger for the second touchdown but the try for the point was blocked. The third touchdown came the same way on a long pass from Nordberg to Seiler, and Dahl made the point. This ended the quarter.

In the third quarter after New Trier had pranced all the way down the field and had the ball on the five-yard line, it failed to score; but when Deerfield got the ball and attempted to kick, the oval was blocked and J. Allen fell on the ball for a safety. Seiler accounted for New Trier's fourth touchdown, after a long pass from Nordberg to Williams put the ball on the five-yard line. The kick was blocked.

After the fourth quarter opened, Dahl grabbed the ball and raced 45 yards, and then after two plays through the line he again took the ball and ran 60 yards for New Trier's fifth touchdown. The point after the touchdown was made by a pass from Nordberg to Williams. The last touchdown came a few minutes later on a line plunge by Dahl, who again made the extra kick to swell New Trier's total score to 42 points, twenty-one of which were made by Dahl.

New Trier's greatest power came in its passes. Of twelve attempted, eight were complete and five for more than 30 yards, while Deerfield attempted ten and four were complete.

New Trier will play Evanston next Saturday, November 12, at 2 o'clock at Phelps field, Winnetka. The largest crowd that has ever attended a game at New Trier is expected, as there is always the greatest rivalry between the two schools and this year it will decide the championship.

NEW TRIER (42)		DEERFIELD (14)
Preston	LE		Peterson
Dostal	LT		Ghini
Wilson	LG		Rutledge
Schuman	C		Swan
Gielen	RG		Cummings
Appleyard	RT		Connolly
Williams	RE		Irving
Nordberg	QB		Allen, J.
Seller	LH		Johnston
Smale	RH		Divinsky
Dahl	FB		Axtion

Here and There

Now that the election is over, the humorists will be up against it for material unless a good snappy South American revolution turns up. One probably will, though; it's been almost a month since the last disturbance.

Speaking of revolutions, the Mexican woman who claims to be one hundred and thirty must be counting in revolutions rather than years.

Anne: "Are you gonna be busy tonight?"

Jane: "How should I know? It's my first date with him."

We don't like the depression any better than you do, but remember a depression is just a hole and a hole is nothing at all, so why worry about nothing? . . . Be satisfied with a little! The atom took its split without complaining.

Dutchman (in cigar store): "Have you any perfectos?"

She: "No, mine all have bunions on 'em."

11:30 Saturday Night!

After we beat Evanston Saturday, don't take the goal posts to the VICTORY DANCE . . . Let's be satisfied with a good share of the gate.

FLEES FROM FOREIGN LEGION AFTER TWO YEARS—headline. That's nothing, we had 'em after two days on our camping trip.

Officer Happ: "Hey, there! Don't you know you can't turn around on this street?"

Student: "Oh, I think I can make it allright."

Have you paid your election bets yet? Neither have we. Better luck on your Big Ten wagers; it oughta be easier to pick a winner.

Mr. Schumacher tells us that it is the duty of the recording secretary of the Chess club to read the hours of the last meeting.

"Our chemistry teacher talks to himself. Does yours?"

"Yes, but he doesn't realize it—he thinks we're listening."

The guy I hate
 Is Sammy Noyes.
 He said Deerfield
 Would beat our boys.

The most common impediment in students' speech is chewing gum.

Well, well, it's a shame. She was such a nice girl, too, but, when she said, "Oh, it must be such fun being a colunist. I'll bet you laugh all day long," we just had to let her have it with both barrels.

If all the hot dogs consumed at last Saturday's game were laid end to end, it would be a lot of bologna.

Done, at 3 a. m.—bull of a watch time!

Rox.

Substitutions: New Trier—Scott for Preston, Fox for Dostal, Heindrichs for Wilson, Herberholz for Schuman, Rossman for Gielen, Zoernsch for Appleyard, Briggs for Williams, Sullivan for Nordberg, Oliver for Seiler, Ballenger for Smale, Hallquist for Dahl.
 Deerfield—Gansberg for Ghini, Dorretti for Johnston, Wicklander for Divinsky, Viversatti for Divinsky, P. Allen for Axtion.

Officials: referee, Travenick; umpire, Biester; head linesman, Becker.

Score by Periods:
 New Trier 7 13 8 14—42
 Deerfield 0 14 0 0—14

Students Bring
Record Number of Sandwiches

More sandwiches than have been brought at any other time this year were contributed last Wednesday by the New Trier students. However, it is re-emphasized that twenty-three boxes are still not a sufficient quantity to fill the great demand in the Goose Island industrial and slum district which New Trier is supplying.

Leaders of the sandwich campaign at high school issue the following appeal:

"Two sandwiches are such an insignificant thing to remember and yet, if every student would remember, we would have fifty large cardboard boxes filled to the top. Can't New Trier students remember that others besides themselves are hungry? You, and you and you remember next week, won't you?"

"Don't forget: Wrap each sandwich separately—don't use rubber bands; any kind of food, and candles and bacon drippings are more than welcome. Next Wednesday—remember — REMEMBER! REMEMBER!"

Lens Club Nominates
Three for President

The following have been nominated for president of Lens club for the year 1932-33: Walter Merrill, Sam Rockwell and Ned Shapker; for vice-president, Jane Bull, Hermona Clark, Martha Gilhofer, Jane Sundlof and Muriel Reynolds; for secretary, Caroline Clark, Vivian Grigsby, Betty Philips and Luella Hollister; for treasurer, Earl Moss, Jack Winter, Lyman Sandy and Clinton Demmon.

The first ballot was held last week; and the second on Wednesday, November 9. The results will be announced in a later issue.

Hockey and Soccer
Teams Chosen Soon

The class teams in both hockey and soccer are to be chosen next week. Miss Smith stated that there would be a few games next week, which would be watched for good material.

Anyone not playing next week may come out after the regular games, and there will be a game organized to give these girls a chance to try out for the teams.

The girls wishing to try out for hockey may come out on their regular days and Miss Nixon will be there to watch the games. The inter-class games will be played the week before the Thanksgiving holidays.

Adviser Group Enjoys
Progressive Luncheon

The adviser-room party, a progressive luncheon, staged by Mrs. Banker and her advisees on Saturday, November 5, was voted a great success.

Instructions for the directions from one house to another were found in verse form on the New Trier campus, and in puzzles. The first and very appetizing course was served by Helen Booz; the second and delicious main course, by Jean Haskins; and the last, a lovely dessert, at the home of Henrietta Bradshaw where all the girls then spent the afternoon playing cards.

Everyone, including the honored guests, Miss Packer and Miss Maloney, expressed their enjoyment of a very entertaining afternoon.

George "Red" Browning, '32, has been elected treasurer of the freshman class at Armour institute.