O. OF M. MEETING

Mrs. Peter Van de North, 207 Dupree place, will have the meeting of St. Francis' household, Order of Martha, Monday afternoon, January 9, for 1:30 sewing.

Woman's Club's Next Program on January 11

The Woman's Club of Wilmette will have its first after-the-holiday meeting Wednesday, January 11.

In the Bulletin the club program chairman, Mrs. Herbert B. Mulford, has announced the program for the day.

At 10:30 o'clock the child and home department, whose chairman is Mrs. Ray S. Warren, will present Emery W. Balduf, dean of the Central Y. M. C. A. College of Arts and Sciences of Chicago. His talk will be the first of a course of four lectures dealing with psychology. His first talk will deal in general with the danger inherent in the adult to get along with the education which he "stored up" in his youth.

Following the one o'clock luncheon, Harold A. Ehrensperger, director, author, and actor of the Little Theater, will be the speaker. Mr. Ehrensperger has had wide experience in the field of drama. Miss Kathleen Sauerwald, of Milwaukee, contralto, will furnish the musical numbers on the program.

Catholic Club Juniors Spread Christmas Joy

Wednesday afternoon, December 21, a group of the girls from the Junior auxiliary of the Woman's Catholic club of Wilmette, accompanied by Santa Claus, went to All Saints' parish of downtown Chicago to give poor children their share of a merry Christmas.

The girls had worked many weeks repairing cast-off toys to give to these unfortunate ones on Christmas.

The children were entertained by a motion picture comedy after which Santa Claus arrived to give each good child his Christmas toy and a heavily filled stocking of goodies. Enthusiasm ran high as they met old Santa by the Christmas tree and he greeted them cheerily. All were most appreciative and had a good time.

The girls and Santa were cordially entertained after the children's party by the nuns at a small tea.

The auxiliary members participating were the Misses Mary Elizabeth Burns, Dorothy Bichl, Marion Orseifen, Vivienne Morin, Cecelia Benz, Virginia Salerno, and Lorraine Moore.

Invite Wilmette Women to Philanthropy Sewing

The Friday philanthropy sewing days at the Woman's Club of Wilmette, which are open to all women of the village, will resume on January 6. The Bird Memorial center, a Congregational philanthropy, is to be the beneficiary of the work done that day. Sewing commences at 10 and continues until 4, with delectable luncheons at noon to which mothers may bring school children.

Mrs. Irvin R. Adkins is chairman of the work for January 6. Mrs. Arthur H. Howard, Mrs. M. H. McMillen, Mrs. Theodore J. Moreau, Mrs. Frederick Newey, Mrs. E. W. K. Roe, and Mrs. G. W. Rose, are members of her committee. Mrs. A. L. Grinnell is luncheon chairman.

These open sewing days are sponsored by the philanthropy department of the club, of which Mrs. A. E. Klunder is chairman. The work on comforters, which is done at all meetings under the direction of Mrs. A. A. Davison, will also be resumed at this meeting.

To Play at Club

Samuel Thaviu of Wilmette, violinist and a pupil of Mischa Mischakoff, is to give the music program at the silver anniversary program of the Winnetka Woman's club next Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Maurice H. Lieber will read the history she has written of the club, and Mrs. James F. Porter is giving a reading of the poem written by Mrs. William A. Otis.

Kenilworth Guilds Meeting January 9

The guilds of the Church of the Holy Comforter will meet Monday, January 9, at the following homes:

The Chase guild, at the residence of Mrs. Henry Taylor, Jr., 431 Essex road, Kenilworth; the Whitehouse guild, at Mrs. P. E. Connor, 549 Cedar street, Winnetka; the McLaren guild, at the home of Mrs. D. G. Raymond, 210 Abingdon avenue, Kenilworth; the Anderson guild, at Mrs. Herbert A. Lundahl's, 224 Raleigh road, Kenilworth, and the Stewart guild with Mrs. L. E. Mitlen, 159 Fuller lane, Winnetka.

Undergraduates to Speak at Holyoke Club Luncheon

Undergraduates home for the holidays will be guests of honor at a luncheon meeting of the Chicago Mount Holyoke club Saturday at the College club, at 1 o'clock.

Four undergraduates, Julia Drake, Phyllis Burnell, Martha Quisenberry, and Nancy Corbin, will report on college and campus activities such as scholarship funds, the new cooperative housing plant, dramatics, sports, and the Outing club where overnight and week-end gatherings take place.

Married on Christmas

Mr. and Mrs. John Coyle of Evanston announce the marriage of their daughter, Mary, to Christian Walter Schafer, son of Mrs. Cecile Schafer of Evanston, which took place Christmas afternoon in Christ church, Winnetka. The bride and bridegroom left immediately for Biloxi and New Orleans and on their return will reside in Evanston. Mr. Schafer is manager of the real estate loan department of the Wilmette State bank.

Art Exhibit, Open House at Woman's Club Sunday

The Woman's Club of Wilmette, in celebration of the holiday season, invites all interested in art on the north shore to come to its open house on New Year's day. Rudolph Ingerle, known so well for his art that he needs no introduction, will be one of a group of talented artists whose work will be on exhibit. During the hours from 3 until 6 Sunday afternoon, tea will be served.

The exhibit is sponsored by the club's art department, whose chairman is Mrs. Ralph Huff. In charge of the arrangements for and the hanging of the January exhibition are Mrs. Chester Lawrence and Mrs. Gordon Hannah.

To Address Smith Club

Oliver Larkin of the art department at Smith college will be the speaker at the annual Christmas luncheon of the Chicago Smith club at 12 o'clock Saturday at the Arts club. Mr. Larkin has charge of the decoration of Smith's booth at the Century of Progress, and will tell his plans after the luncheon. News of the college will be brought by some of the undergraduates who, as well as alumnae, will be present.
