Will You Provide Jobs for Jobless?

By W. C. Reinhold

(For Wilmette Committee on Unemployment)

Don't permit familiarity with the fact there is a "depression" deaden your responsiveness to the heart-breaking appeal that is coming in increasing volume from those who are in dire need.

Mrs. J. C. Blaylock, who is in charge of the "unemployment problem" in Wilmette, states that the number of men and women who are in need of employment in Wilmette is greater than at any time since the depression started, and that it is increasing. Therefore, do not grow weary in the matter of helping out the situation, and when you do assist do not delay the matter. Make it a matter of first importance to plan to give work to somebody, and do not wait until the day arrives for the work to be done. Plan for it ahead of time. Call Mrs. Blaylock, Wilmette 2550, two or three days ahead of time, and tell her just what kind of work you want done. She will then arrange to have a competent man or woman call to see you.

Perhaps it is true that everything that has a beginning also has an ending, and you, who have suffered nothing more serious than a reduced income, may be able to regard that certainty in a sort of philosophical "don't worry" manner, but it sounds like mockery to the man or woman who is absolutely without any income, and without a chance to earn a cent. It is rather tiresome, to say the least, to hear the wise ones prate: "We always have come out of our depressions, and we surely will emerge from this one." The trouble with that bromide is that the pronoun "we" is not going to include many who will be in starvation graves when we "emerge."

What I am trying to say is that notwithstanding the "signs" of a "better feeling" the "depression" is increasingly claiming its victims. There are now, according to official figures, between twelve and fifteen millions of men and women out of work. President-elect Roosevelt states that even if all the mills and factories were to be operated now on full time, there would still be 5,000,000 who would remain idle.

Yes . . . we may be even now in the second "syllable" of the "de-PRESS-i-ON," but that means nothing to the fathers and mothers, who without income, day after day hear their children cry for mere bread.

If you have even one of those "re-

Kenilworth Girl Chosen N. U. Queen for Charity Ball

Miss Loretta White of 310 Richmond road, Kenilworth has been chosen as "Miss Northwestern" and will represent that school in the forthcoming Charity ball. One of six candidates chosen by student judges. Miss White was selected for the title by a group of prominent Chicago men. She is the daughter of Thomas C. White, is a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority, and is a junior in the school of speech.

Concurrent with this, was the announcement that beauty queens had been selected by all the Big Ten schools, and they will vie with Miss White for the title of "Big Ten Beauty Queen." The queens from the various schools are: Indiana: Miss Josephine Dorsett; Minnesota: Miss Marlys Hanson; Illinois: Miss Blanche Waddell; Ohio State: Miss Jane Berry; Michigan: Mary Phillips; Purdue: Miss Lillian Peterson; Chicago: Geraldine Mitchell; Iowa: Ruth Katter; Wisconsin: Jette Lee Luellen.

The ball, scheduled for February 17, is to be held at the Aragon Ballroom, Chicago. Wayne King and Bernie Cummins will provide the music, and the presentation of the entertainment will be handled by Ben Bernie, "The Old Maestro."

Tickets will be placed on sale in the near future. Until then, reservations may be made by calling Room 204 of the Carlson building, 636 Church street, Evanston.

BACK FROM MOTOR TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. John Magie, 2815 Blackhawk road, have returned from a three weeks' motor trip in the east. They visited Mr. Magie's sister, in New Haven, Conn., and then went to South Orange, N. J., Mrs. Magie's former home, going on from there to Washington D. C., and Hot Springs, Va.

Miss Catherine Schmidt, 710 Washington avenue, Wilmette, left Sunday for Granville, Ohio, where she will attend Denison university.

Mrs. Frank Barrett, 615 Essex road, Kenilworth, entertained a bridge foursome at luncheon Wednesday of last week.
