

"WHITHER BOUND?"

Prof. Hilton Ira Jones to Discuss that Theme Before Group at Methodist Church Tonight

By W. C. R.

Prof. Hilton Ira Jones will address Group IV on the topic, "Whither Bound?" this Thursday evening at the Wilmette Parish Methodist Episcopal church. This address will be on one of the chapters of the voluminous report on "Recent Social Trends" made by the Research commission appointed two years ago by Ex-President Hoover. Group IV consists of men and women who meet under the auspices of the Men's class of the church.

This is one feature of the Church Night Program, which opens with a cafeteria dinner to be served at 6:30 o'clock, followed by a brief service of worship under the direction of Dr. Oscar Thomas Olson, the minister, during which the chorus choir will sing.

Group I, which is studying "The Use of the Bible in the Modern Home and School," will be addressed by Prof. Frank M. McKibben, of Northwestern university, on "The Bible and the Various Ages."

Interprets "Cavalcade"

An interesting evening is promised for Group II, which is studying "Contemporary Literature and Its Meaning for Today." Mrs. H. O. Roesing will read and interpret Noel Coward's drama "The Cavalcade," which is now having a long run in Chicago.

The Rev. Randall B. Hamrick will address Group III on the theme "Are You Physically Fit?"

During the sessions of the various groups a recreation program will be held in the Primary room for small children.

The future meetings of Group IV will be of great interest to every man and woman. Among the chapters of the commission's report to be discussed are those on:

"The Agencies of Communication," which was written by Malcolm M. Willey, professor of sociology at the University of Minnesota, and Stuart A. Rice, professor of sociology and chairman of the department of economic and social statistics at the University of Pennsylvania.

"Education" by Charles H. Judd, professor and Head of the Department of Education and director of the school of Education at the University of Chicago.

"Labor Groups in the Social Structure" by Leo Walman and Gustave Peck, members of the Faculty of economics at the College of the City of New York.

"Crime and Punishment," by Edwin H. Sutherland, professor of sociology at the University of Chicago, and C. E. Gehlke, professor of sociology at Western Reserve university.

"Taxation and Public Finance" by Clarence Herr, of the University of North Carolina."

Explains Increase in 1931 Tax Rate for High School in the Chicago area. The average rate for twenty high schools in Cook county, according to a statement published by Mr. Francis Bacon, principal of Evanston Township High school, is 1.34 and the highest rate is 1.79. Our tax levy for 1932 is the same as for 1931.

If there were no substantial tax delinquencies, thereby eliminating the need for tax anticipation warrants, the high school, as well as all other taxing boards, could reduce their tax levy at least 30 percent and still have available the same income upon which they are now operating. Those who pay their taxes are paying at least 50 percent more than they would have to pay if everybody paid his taxes.

Limit Warrant Issue

We are planning to limit our issue of 1931 tax warrants to 60 percent of the tax levy. We have sold $200,000 of 1932 warrants, have all bills paid in full to date, and will need to sell only $75,000 more of 1932 warrants to complete the current school year and meet all bonds and interest due July 1 next without any material curtailment of the school program.

These results have only been possible through the loyal cooperation of the faculty and other employees of the school who have borne the burden of a substantial reduction in salaries, in addition to which they have been obliged to accept tax warrants to the amount of 50 percent of all salaries.

Kenilworth Boys Plan Hobby Show, Gym Expo

Boys at the Joseph Sears school in Kenilworth are centering their activities on plans for the annual hobby show and gymnasium exhibition to be held Saturday night, March 25, in the Kenilworth Memorial gymnasium. The boys are busy selling tickets for the show and planning their exhibits and stunts. Scouts, Cubs, Junior Hikers and Sea Scouts all will have a part in the program. The school glee club, orchestra and harmonica band will provide entertainment also. Parents and other interested citizens of Kenilworth are invited to the hobby show, and each year the affair is an important event in the life of the community.

Mrs. Robert O. Law, 321 Kenilworth avenue, will return the end of the week from Sarasota, Fla., where she has been spending the past two months.

Shell Hole Feature at Woman's Club Mart

The Shell Hole was originated three years ago by the Wilmette American Legion auxiliary to be used as a channel for selling articles made by the disabled veterans of the World war now hospitalized at Great Lakes. For a time it was located in the lobby of the Brown building, but it has not been active in having display space for some time. However, orders have been taken right along for the many articles made by the disabled veterans.

The Shell Hole will be in full sway at the Woman's club mart next week, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. The men at Great Lakes hospital are making articles to be sold at this booth.

Only very real values can be considered in times like these! Realizing this, we have very carefully chosen our new spring clothes. The colors and fabrics are lovely, the workmanship excellent, and the prices astonish us every time we unpack a new shipment. We have just received a number of exceptionally good looking town coats—

Also some country suits in delicious soft lightweight tweed. We look forward with confidence to being as busy throughout the season as we have been (surprisingly enough) these last few days. During March we will allow a 10% discount on all cash purchases.
